

The 1949

CAVALIER

Ever since 1849 when the first pioneer Brothers penetrated the Ohio Valley, the youth of the Queen City have benefited from their competent guidance. The grateful appreciation shown for the one hundred years of uninterrupted Marianist education is symbolized by the respect given to the individual whose activities have stretched over the past quarter century. This person is none other than Purcell's own Brother Bill.

. . . The 1949 Cavalier

The Society of Mary has existed in the United States for exactly one hundred years. One of the out-standing monuments to its efforts is our school, Purcell. It is the hope of every Senior that we, graduates of this year, will live up to the school's high standard and that the school will continue to develop Christian gentlemen, scholars — apostles of Catholic living.

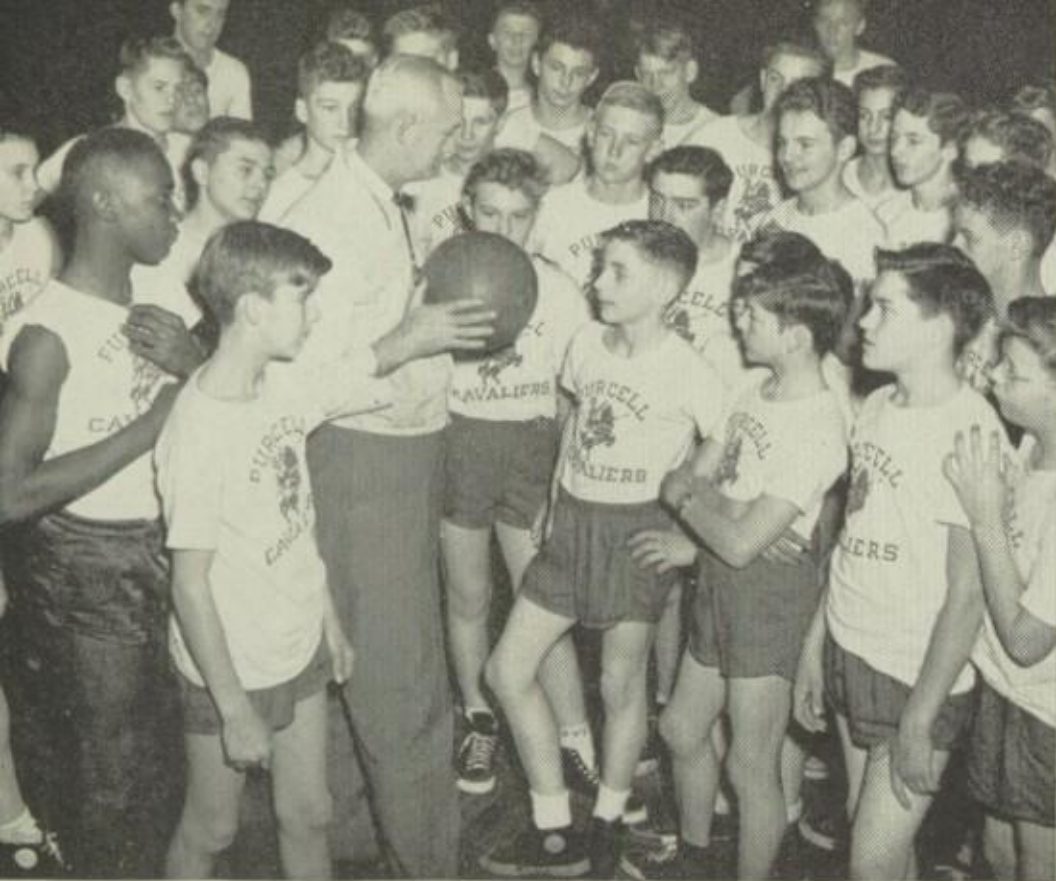

Scheve, Crowell, Merkt, and Stump, Art Club Members, prepare decorations for the post-season football banquet. Sweat and soiled hands brought forth beautiful pennants.

Armed with a surgical instrument, a hypo, this biology student experiments on a helpless guinea pig, hoping with the others that the animal will survive the operation. Success and failure give these boys valuable life experiences.

From The Three R's The Marianist Now Guide

Coach McCarthy takes time to explain to these freshmen the essentials of gymnastics, fair play, and sportsmanship which should characterize their future physical endeavors.

Converting students from the Columbus (discover-and-land) system, to the touch system, is the task of Brother Meder. Pictured here are his proteges.

Hard working seniors explore the physical problems of nature. Under the supervision of Brother Bernard Jansen, they solve in this experiment, the mystery of the moment of force. Concentration and toil are the lot of all college preparatory students.

Youth Through Today's Complex Curricula

The Cavalier and his castle, the Marianist and his school bring to mind the memories of Purcell, with their vivid impressions. To the teachers it represents the emblem of their goal to disseminate knowledge and truth to the farthest reaches of the globe. To the student it exemplifies his years of training under its protecting roof. To all it is a kindly mother — our Alma Mater.

A Century Of Progress Has Seen Marianist

With stomachs full, spirits high, this gathering of Cavalier students indulge in an after-lunch bull session. These contented upperclassmen wait for the last roundup.

All I have to say is that the fellows near the door had better get it open or the eager study-hounds will knock them higher than the ladder from which Brother Weber took this picture.

He came, he saw, he conquered the hearts and minds of every Cavalier. This is our principal, Father George B. Barrett, S.M., who has guided and inspired us for three years, molding our characters and fostering our talents so that we might leave the Castle as Men of Purcell, Men of Principle.

Round and around she goes and where she stops nobody knows; but when she did stop, somebody else walked off with Father Barrett's panda.

Seniors Larry Kautz, Tom Siemers, and Jack Johannigman look over an important document, their semester grades perhaps, and receive from Father Barrett some enlightening information on the possibility of obtaining a release from their final exams.

Bro. Lawrence Eyeslage, S.M.

Bro. Lawrence Eyeslage

OUR Vice-Principal, Brother Lawrence J. Eyeslage, S.M., is known to every Cavalier. His accomplishments as teacher and disciplinarian are well established. At the beginning of each school day he has the absentees and tardies to contend with, and through the day there are the attendance checks. Though he is without a doubt the busiest man at Purcell he's always ready to give a word of counsel or advice. He is an ardent rooter for Purcell's basketball and football teams. Many Cavaliers have been put on the straight and narrow path by him, their solicitous guide.

Efficiency And Understanding Characterize

Our Secretaries

Miss Mary Kennedy
Mrs. J. William Vonasek

THE word indispensable hardly does justice in describing our three efficient secretaries. All Cavaliers at one time or another during the year have had the pleasure of getting the helpful assistance of either Miss Mary Kennedy, who is experienced in the affairs of the Cavalier Castle, Mrs. Mary Vonasek, who joined the staff last year, or Mrs. Mary Giltz, who has just completed her Freshman year with the Cavaliers.

"Well, boys, it's this way . . ." begins Brother Lawrence as he searches the file for requested information.

Our two efficient secretaries discuss the morning's harassing activities before partaking of their tempting midday meal.

Any Saturday, the neighbors around 2605 Woodburn can look up and find roof dwellers soaring above the faculty residence. Actually these Brothers are industriously working on a rotating ten-meter, three-element beam, a transmitting antenna.

The members of the faculty bowling league were engaged in a hectic struggle in the last frame when this picture was snapped. Father Boyle and Father Schoenig are employed in keeping the score for their respective teams.

Which End He Constantly Applies Himself,

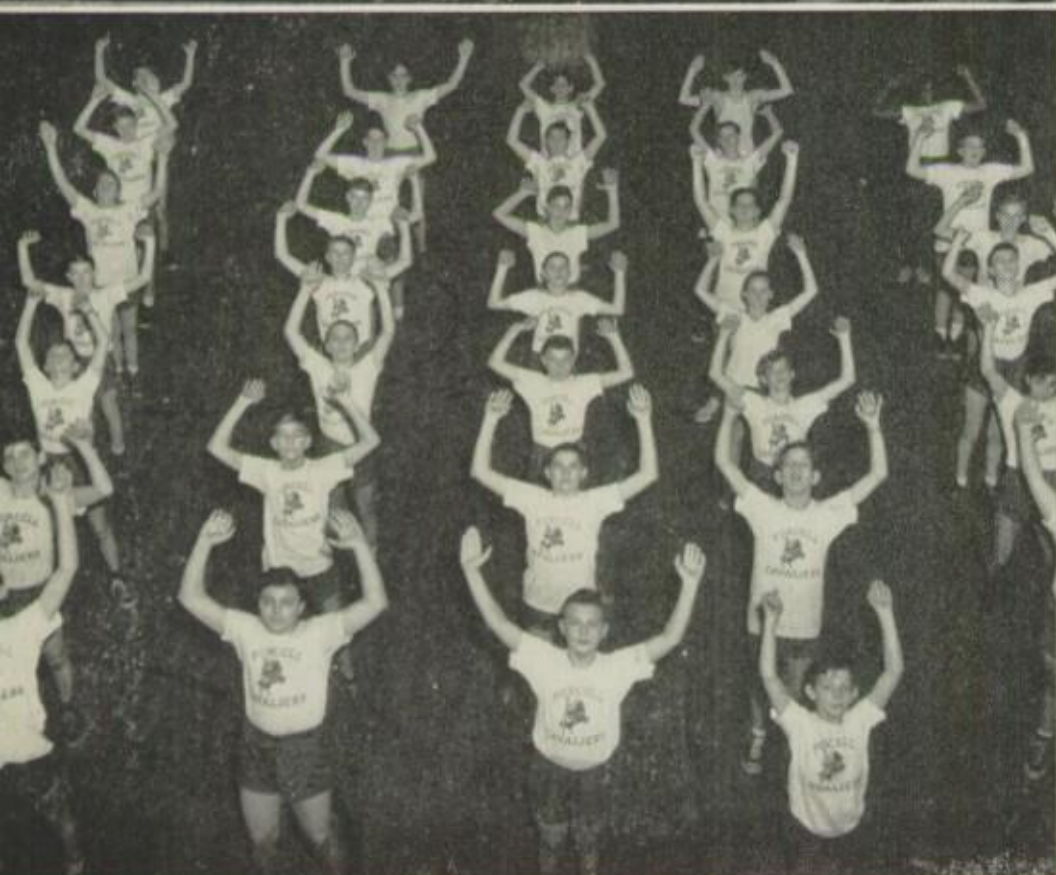

Judging by the facial expressions of these Senior-Artists another great masterpiece is about to be produced under the watchful supervision of Frank Ford.

STUDENTS versus teachers; and so it goes today in many a school scattered throughout the country. Yes, thus is the sad case at the present time — students plotting and even uniting against their scholastic superiors.

They seem to forget that obedience to teachers and instructors is specifically included in the Fourth Commandment. To disobey them, therefore, is to disobey God. And, then too, what is the result of this constant conflict? Invariably — discord, malcontent, and complete confusion.

Are current world conditions bothering these studious globe-watchers or is some one just trying to locate the questionable whereabouts of Lower Slobovia?

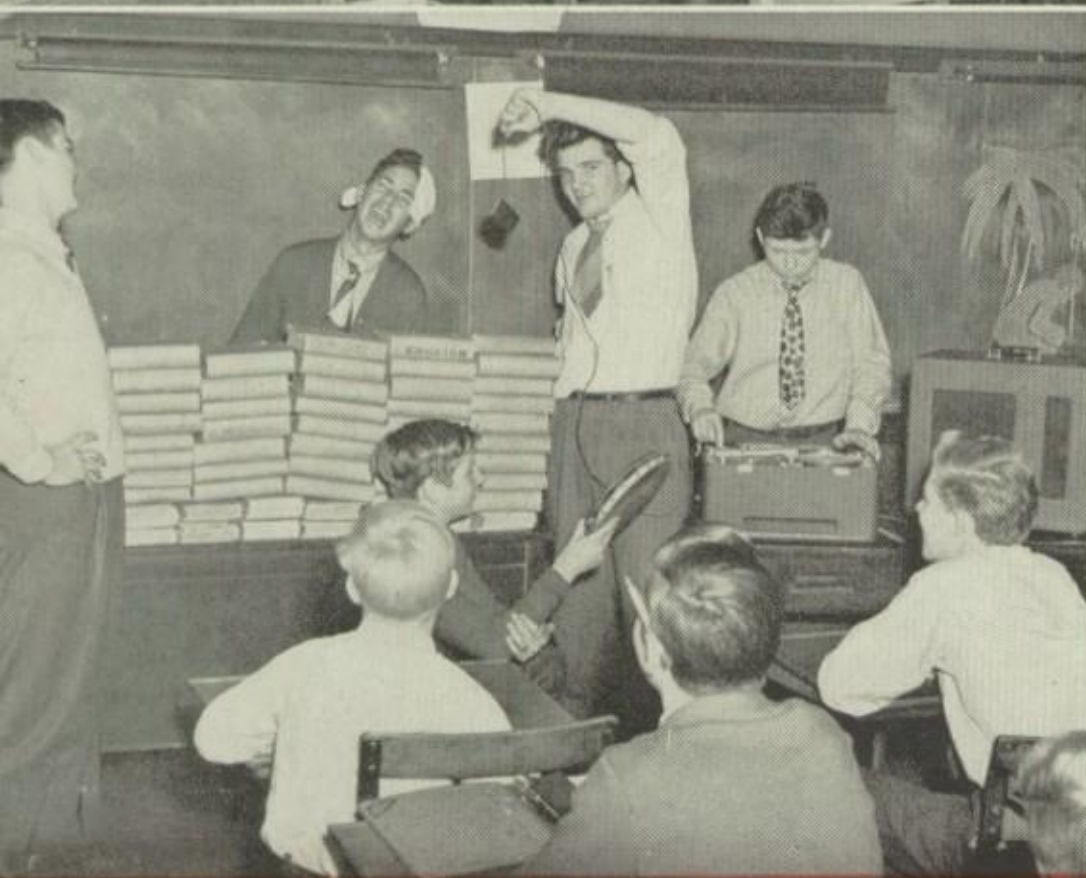

One-two-three-four! Another weary workout for these "panting" freshmen as the minute hand on Old Man Clock slowly winds its weary way.

This interested sophomore Music Appreciation class toys with a Tchaikovsky theme in the process of acquiring a more thorough understanding of a Russian concerto.

And is this the case right here at Purcell today? Anyone in the know will unhesitatingly give reply with a hearty "NO!!" — However, there will always be that small dissenting minority who, because of their own personal grudges and dislikes, will try to incriminate the entire school. The negative answer becomes clearly evident when one stops and views the immense achievements accomplished here at Purcell in the past twenty-one years of its existence. These accomplishments, in studies, in activities, in athletics, and in the

Just what kind of drawing is it that interests Brother Ralph and its creator so much? A cartoon, perhaps — more probably a blueprint.

A Junior English class records for posterity a serious dramatization. Though you might give a different interpretation, our hero is not being fed a dead rodent.

overall school life, could be realized only through the cooperation and mutual assistance between the priests and Brothers and the students themselves.

The consequences of this almost complete unanimity between the faculty and the students at Purcell, before, during, and after school hours, can be seen in the sturdy examples of good, clean Catholic young men which the school has turned out in the past and will continue to turn out as long as this cooperation continues. Remember, cooperation has never been and never will be achieved through animosity and ill-will—and remember too, that without cooperation there can be no progress.

Your would-be Charles Atlases attempt to pull apart Magdeburg hemispheres, apparently with no success, while Brother Jansen looks amusedly on. Could it be that the good Brother has glued them together?

All appearances indicate that Brother Geary's avid chemists are working on a new atomic bomb. They could be trying to find which acids will replace hydrogen from zinc? No explosions, fellows!

Preparing for the centenary celebration of the Marianists in Cincinnati, this Junior Art class created posters to be used in the celebration and likewise to participate in a contest honoring the occasion.

Educational Activities In All Forms, The

Snip, snip-snip, snip go the scissors as Brother Weber's busy little Freshman art class cuts out paper dolls. Or are they really trimming decorations for the on-coming Purcell Football Banquet?

Will Dido escape the treacherous wrath of Pygmalion? Will she reach the shores of Carthage before her pursuers snatch her? For once the class hopes the bell won't ring before Fr. Stueve finishes his exciting narration.

Senior '49 Officers — Leaders In Activity

LAST spring the Junior class chose four students from their group to guide them through their last year as Cavaliers. These four boys, the Senior Officers, realized to some extent the ambitions of the class. This was done through their leadership in the Student Council as well as in their interest in various drives and in sponsoring assemblies. The officers with the approval of the faculty and the cooperation of the students were able, by their quiet and receding ways, to do many things which made the past school year a very pleasant one. The Seniors may rest assured that they made a good choice, for these officers have merited for themselves the distinction of being among the most outstanding members in the class of '49.

Seniors

ON A cool September morning in 1944, some 270 shy freshmen stepped into the Cavalier Castle to begin four of the happiest years they were ever to experience. During this period of high-school life, their minds were broadened, their curiosity satisfied, their questions answered and problems solved. Under guidance of efficient teachers, these bewildered freshmen were transformed into ambitious sophomore students. Their unity had already become an unbreakable bond of the spirit of Purcell. Their loyalty was proven by their participation in all the sports and activities at the Castle.

Their junior year brought with it priceless knowledge and pleasant memories which can never leave the mind of a true Cavalier.

And then the big year came. Studies were harder and nightwork was more severe. But the spirit still reigned in the majority of the students and the tasks were accomplished. After cramming for examinations, then taking part in one of the best retreats the school has ever known, the seniors were now riding home to victory.

On graduation day, these students will receive their certificate of knighthood. They stand now, not as bewildered freshmen, but as capable young men, ready to battle the hardships of life with knowledge obtained from a school that is one in a million. It is with a sad heart that we, the seniors of this year, have to leave the surroundings which we treasure with high esteem. We will always remember Purcell!

Senior Homerooms

From the number of fellows exercising their vocal chords, Brother is obviously out of the room. Back in the corner, Jim Cucinotta "modestly" tells his listeners how he won last night's game.

Is "Professor" Frank Nesi of the Purcell Institute of Technology explaining an intricate problem in physics to his colleagues? From the looks on their faces, he is more probably confusing them.

Industrious German students of Brother George's homeroom take time out from their decorating job to pose for the photographer. Wonder whether the boys holding up that sign know what it says.

Apparently Don Gruber has opened a bookie shop in one of Purcell's classrooms. If anyone cares to know its location, "yo old prisms" on the desk indicate it's Brother O'Brien's room.

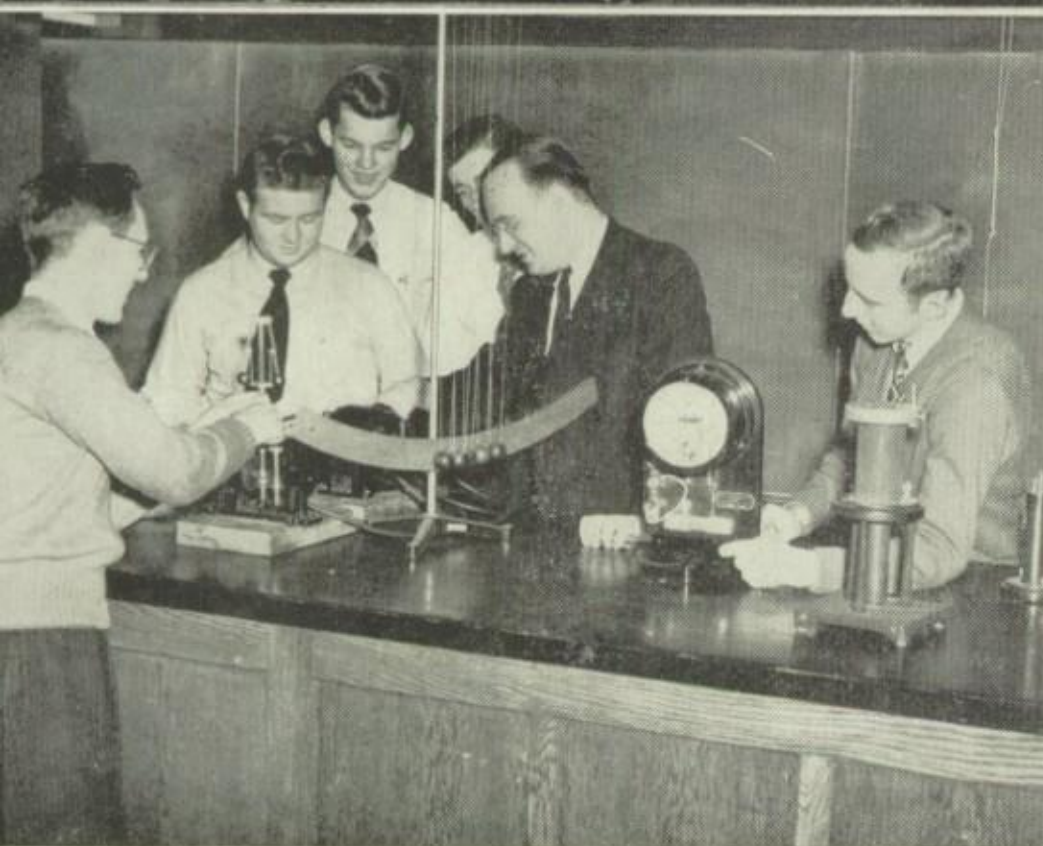

Models Of Spiritual And Scholastic Life

"What's that? You say this is the WCKY quiz man. Quick now, fellows. What was the name of Cleopatra's pet man-eating crocodile?"

Dick "Nancy" Niehaus explains the fundamentals of blackboard checkers to the president of the Red Jung "T" shirt corporation as other members of 4F kibitz.

From the confused look on McCarthy's face Brother Jansen must be saying, "Press this and Pascal's 14th law of motion takes care of the rest."

Everyone in this picture seems to be reasonably happy. That is, all but Curt Borths. What's the trouble, Curt, does someone have B.O.?

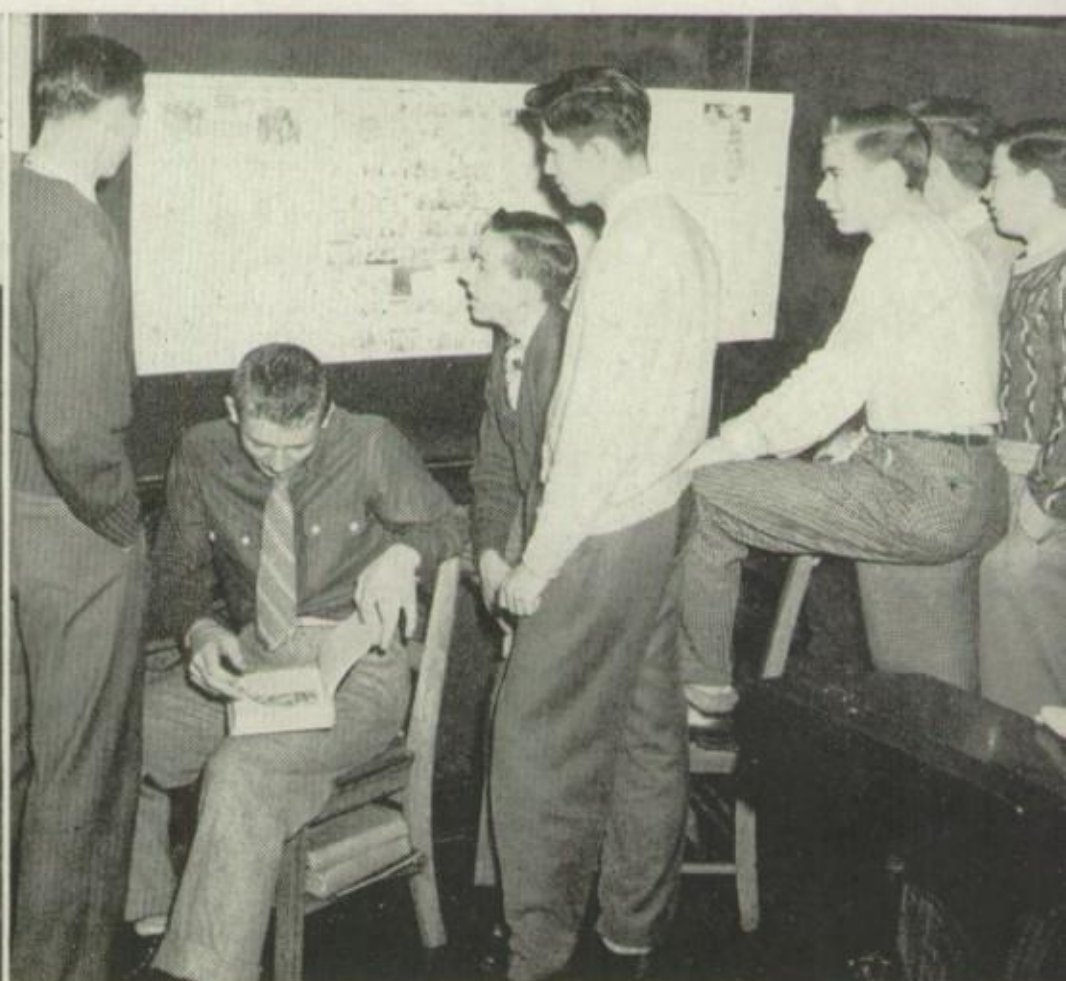

Life In Junior Homerooms

"Professor" Giles Pater attempts to infuse some of his brilliance into his fellow juniors. They're all reading copies of Einstein's theory.

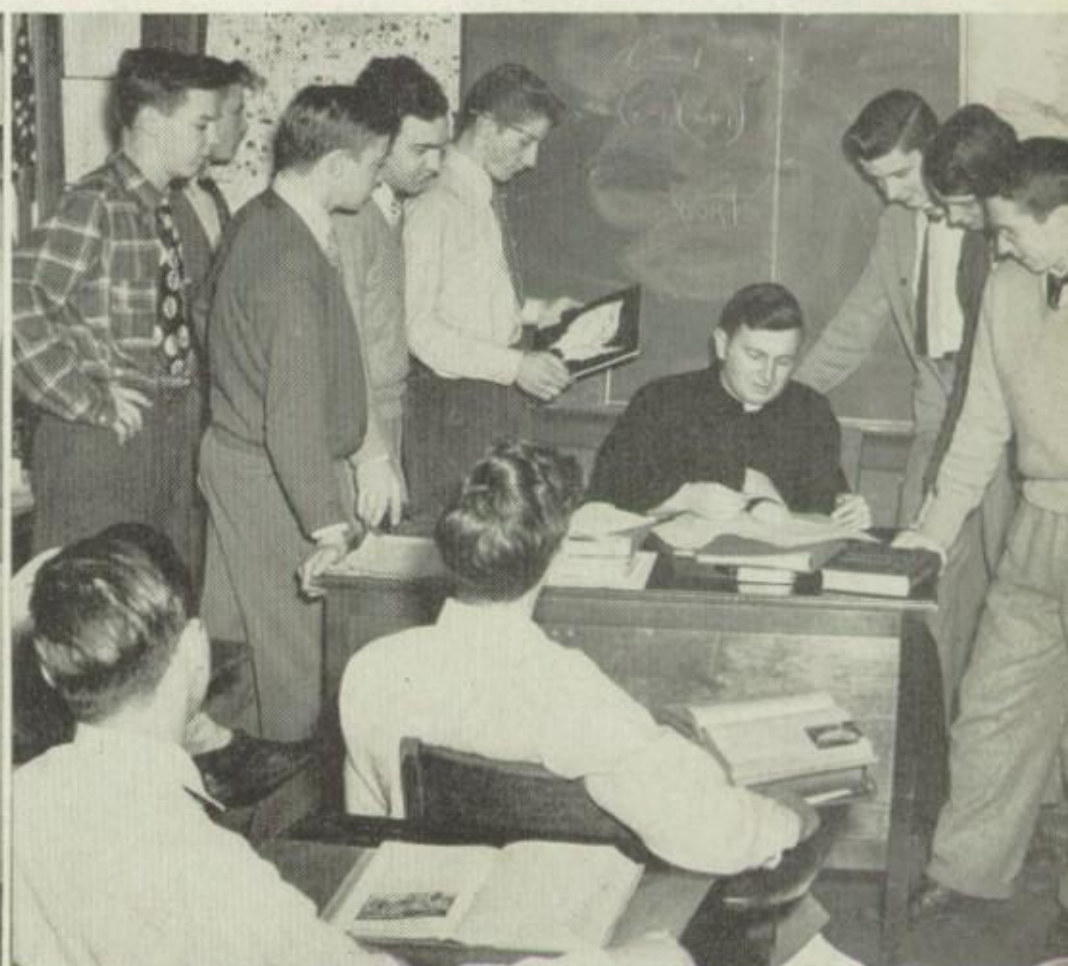

Shorty learns how to tie a Windsor under the supervision of a group of "experienced" Juniors. Bro. Geary gives a few words of advice.

Minutes before 9:15 are used in various ways but these two Juniors seem to have a good idea. Dagwood was never more interesting.

Juniors get the latest news from Krueger's "Dope Sheet." The boys in the background observe their first camel.

Fr. Kenning turns away from history lessons to read "Alice in Wonderland" to his students. This is "snorts" homeroom.

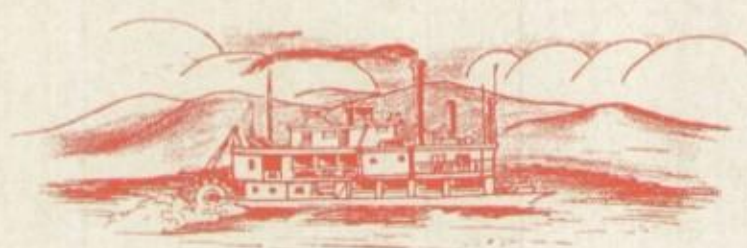

These helpful Junior F boys are feeding Bro. Gensler's pet stock of fish in the biology lab. "Come on, fellows, give them a breath of fresh water."

This young fellow is using his pen while his buddies are making sure he isn't caught. The teacher isn't looking is he, Ricks?

Juniors

EAGER to assume their new responsibilities as the Senior Class of 1950, the Juniors have completed a year that brings them to the commencement of that last chapter in the book entitled High School Days.

Proving that they are equal to assuming this new task, they have produced students who show promise of excelling in their respective fields of endeavor.

Junior scholastic enthusiasm has tended toward lengthening the list of names appearing on the honor roll, with a 99% average here or there.

The honor clubs fairly bulge with prospective Seniors awaiting the opportunity to shine out in still another field. Gridiron fans will have no trouble picking out the possibilities of such outstanding players as Jim Bolger, Jack Martin, Roger Franz, Gene Jochem and Mike Szaz.

Regardless of the activities they may undertake, whether it be scholastic, athletic, extra-curricular, or just helping out day by day, the Juniors have shown that they have what it takes, that they will be capable of rendering a notable account of themselves as Seniors.

Sophomores

THINGS look bright for Purcell. The future of the school is in the capable hands of the "49" edition of the sophomore class. Producing a fine record in spiritual, scholastic and physical achievement, the Sophs look like a sure thing to maintain the high standards which have been set by their predecessors.

On the intellectual side, the second year men are out in front, some pulling down the highest averages ever maintained at the Cavalier home, with Clemens, Fleming and Shaul hugging the spotlight.

Under the guidance of Mr. Jack Hunt the future of sporting activities at Purcell is being molded by intensive activity. Both in football and basketball the Reserves are doing a commendable job, Bob Leonard and Dick Vogele being the outstanding performers.

"Boy, what a retreat!" This phrase was on every Soph's lips after making his annual retreat. Joining forces with the Freshmen and showing them fine example, the underclassmen gave a good spiritual account of themselves.

Freshmen

LOOKING at this group of young Cavaliers, one would not believe that in a period of nine short months these freshmen Purcellites were advanced from the status of green grade-schoolers to their exalted position of experienced high-school sophomores.

It was not so many months ago that these boys made their initial acquaintance with Bro. Lawrence and his little after-school sessions in Room 10, the little slips of paper entitling one to a fine afternoon's entertainment as the guest of Purcell's genial master of wit and discipline, and it was also not too long ago that these boys met the ever present and oft used terms; "x", "pi", "radius of circle" and "square root".

But now all these acquaintances have been made and this formerly green bunch is now prepared to assume its responsibilities as the second year class of Cavaliers.

Father Francis kicks up some advice on teaching, or could these students be planning mutiny?

Though no water-pistols are visible, they can't all be as thirsty as they look.

Are those minds on the tobacco drive or are they just admiring Crowell's art?

What-cha got in your locker, huh? Hubba-Hubba! What's her name and phone number?

From the looks of 2F's homeroom, somebody is going to have a big chew ahead.

What lies behind the cover of that book is a mystery known only by a few.

From the looks of interest, maybe it's a humorous essay. How's Dick Tracy, fellows?

Frosh Class Shots

Members of I-A appear gloomy. Could it be that they owe money to the librarian?

Looking over examples of their fellow classmen's artistic mastery, members of I-B chat before class.

Flowers for the teacher are always in order when it comes time to read the grades.

Members of I-D keep up to date by reading the daily bulletin, a perpetual source of information.

Exploring the intriguing contents of Bro. Weber's "mysterious" book case, students of I-E examine past school annuals.

Are the boys of I-F always so quiet, or is Father Reich telling them "fairy tales"?

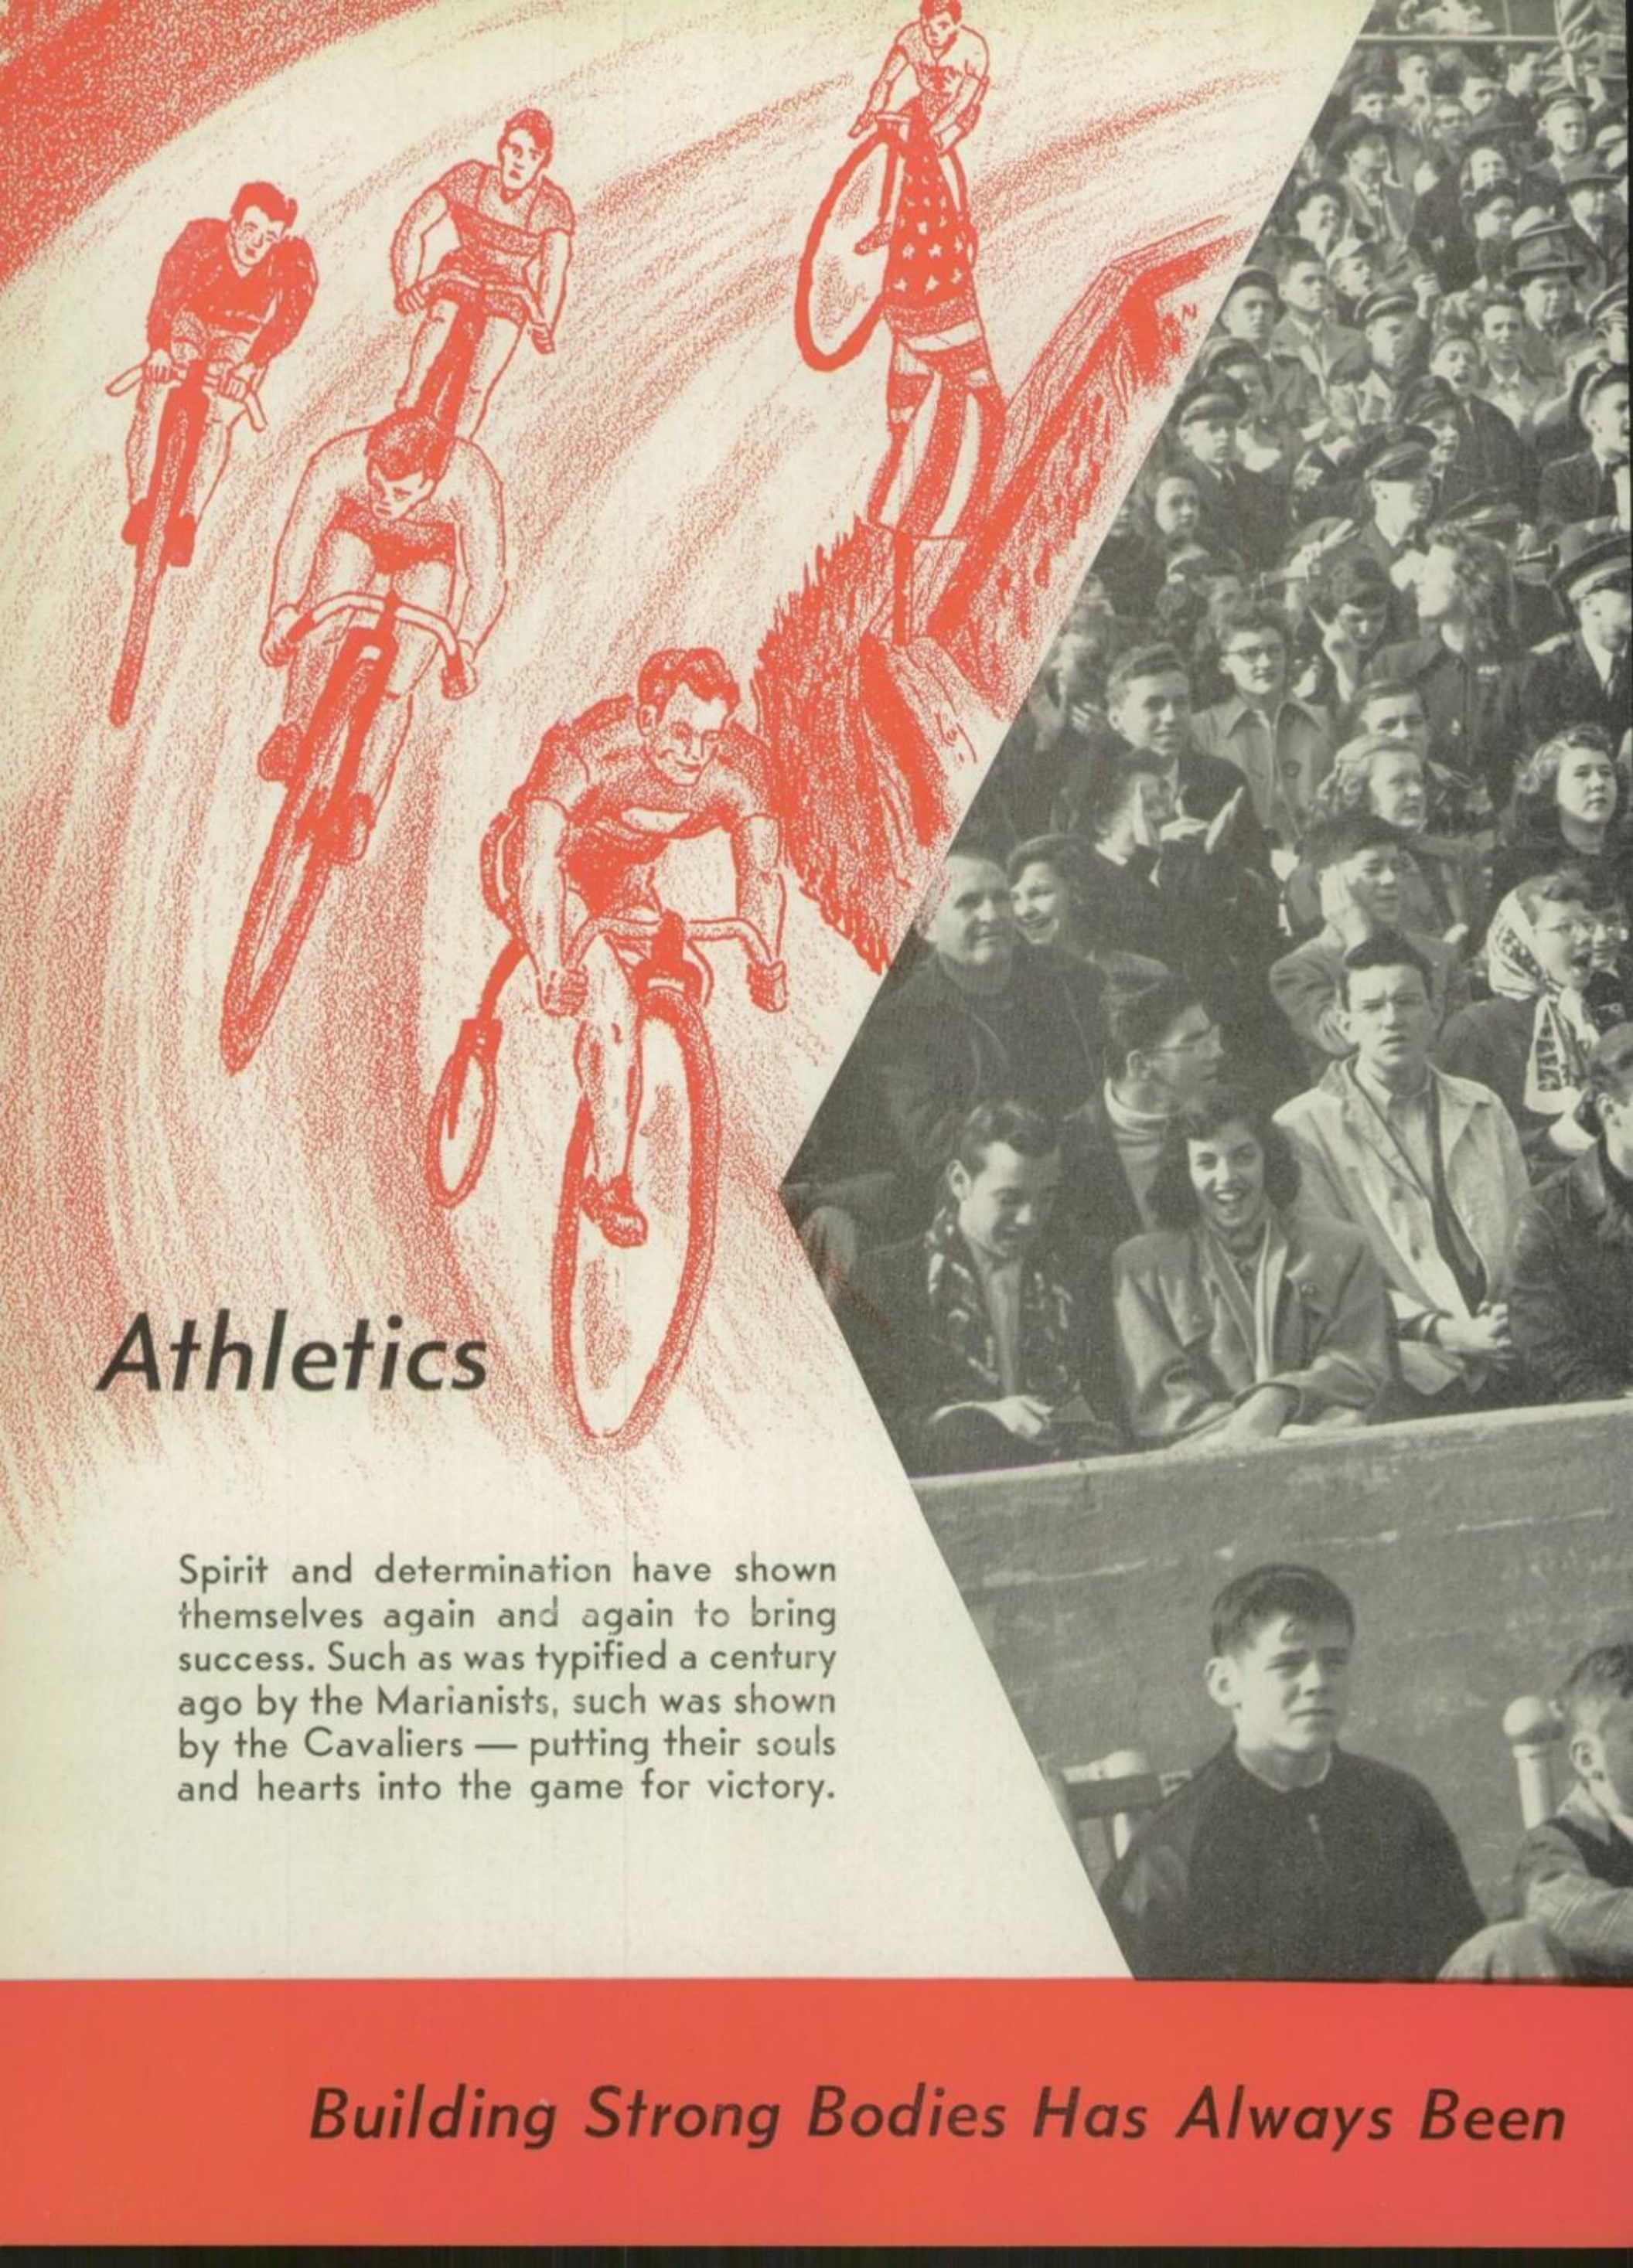

The boys of I-G are keeping themselves occupied by exploring the contents of their homeroom. Find anything?

Eagerly anticipating Brother Joseph Jansen's early morning arrival, Freshman H take time out to pose for our photographer.

Athletics

Spirit and determination have shown themselves again and again to bring success. Such as was typified a century ago by the Marianists, such was shown by the Cavaliers — putting their souls and hearts into the game for victory.

City But Season Rolls To Jinx Climax

Crucial moment in the St. X game as Purcell Reserves wait hopefully for their "big chance" as spectators hover over the bench.

Senior Cheerleaders add a prayer to their team's strenuous effort, while their companions watch a Cavalier rally during the Chaminade fray.

Greater Cincinnati Co-Champs

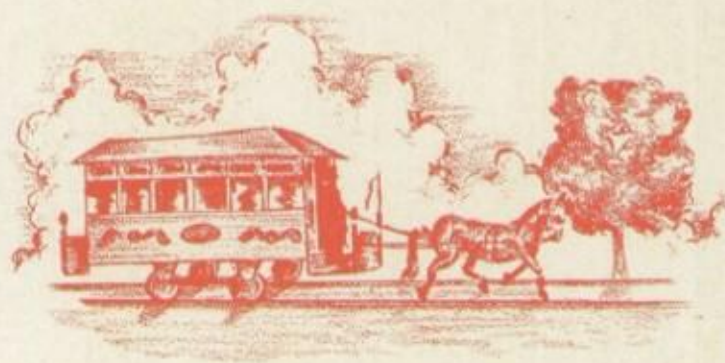

THE Cavalier gridders sparked and sputtered through the 1949 football season, upsetting predictions all along the line and finished with a 7-3 win-loss record. The loss to Withrow was the season's heart-breaker, but revenge on Roger Bacon and Western Hills sweetened the season.

Jim Bolger was the main charge for the Cavaliers. He found "pay dirt" against all opponents, and racked up a city high of 96 points. It was left, however, for the Seniors of 1949 to bear the brunt of the battles. Co-captains Joe Degaro and John McPhillips sparked their mates to a 14-12 win over Dayton Chaminade, ranked ninth in Ohio, for the season's biggest surprise. City "All-Stars" Dick Niehaus and Larry Welage headed the line play for Purcell, and Bob Kolk-meyer, Bob Jung and Stan Biedenharn teamed with them to provide what sportswriters called "Cincinnati's best." Don Hebbeler and Don Gardner maneuvered in the backfield for the Crimson and Gold.

This year marked a definite trend for Purcell to place-kick instead of running for the point-after-touchdown. Tom Dorger made this possible with his expert placements. Rounding out the starting team were Juniors Bill Hall, Jim Muldoon, Jack Martin, Tony Pierani, and Mike Szaz.

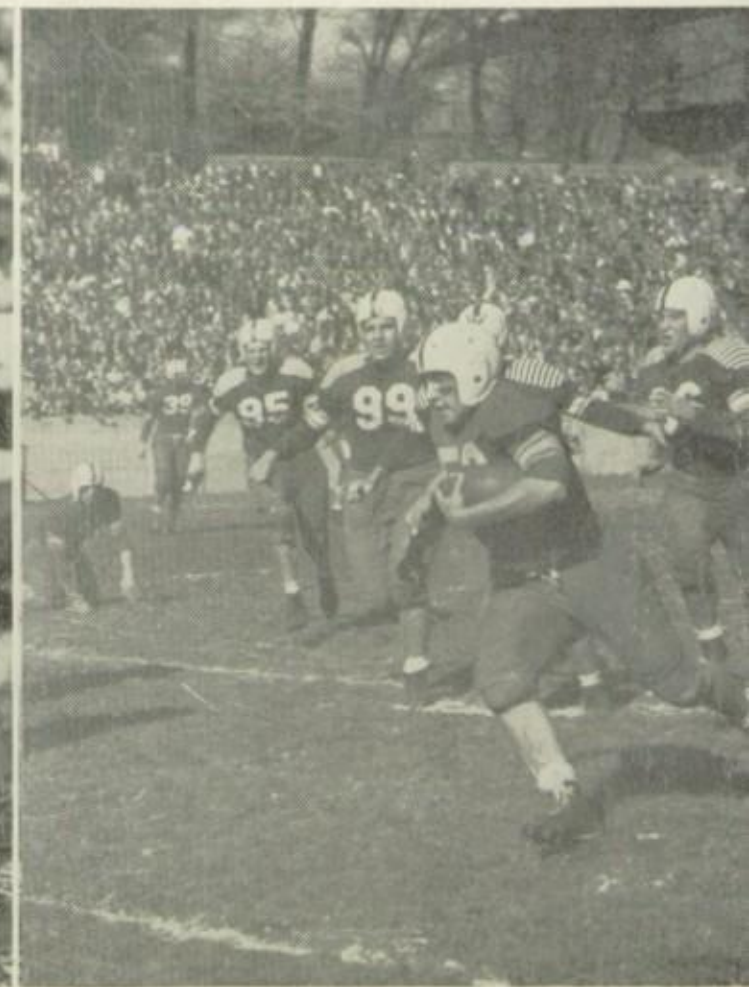

One of the highest scoring teams in Purcell's history, the '48 squad made 209 points to their opponents 107.

It took the Bombers of St. Xavier to provide the biggest upset by beating the Cavaliers 25-7 for their first win over Purcell in six years, and forcing the Crimson and Gold into a tie with Roger Bacon for the League Championship.

"Joltin" Joe Degaro makes another first down as swarms of Spartans take after him, and Niehaus bows low.

Smitty — "Notre Dame's Gipper" For Cavaliers

AT TEN o'clock on the night of August 25, 1948, Purcell High School lost a student, the football squad lost a player, a lot of people lost a friend, and God gained a soul.

This student, player, friend, and soul was a boy by the name of Charles Smith, "Smitty." He was stricken during the second day of practice and was rushed to Jewish Hospital.

There the doctors found that a blood clot had formed on his brain, a condition similar to that which had taken his mother's life. He never regained consciousness after the operation, and he passed away that night well fortified with the Last Rites of the Church.

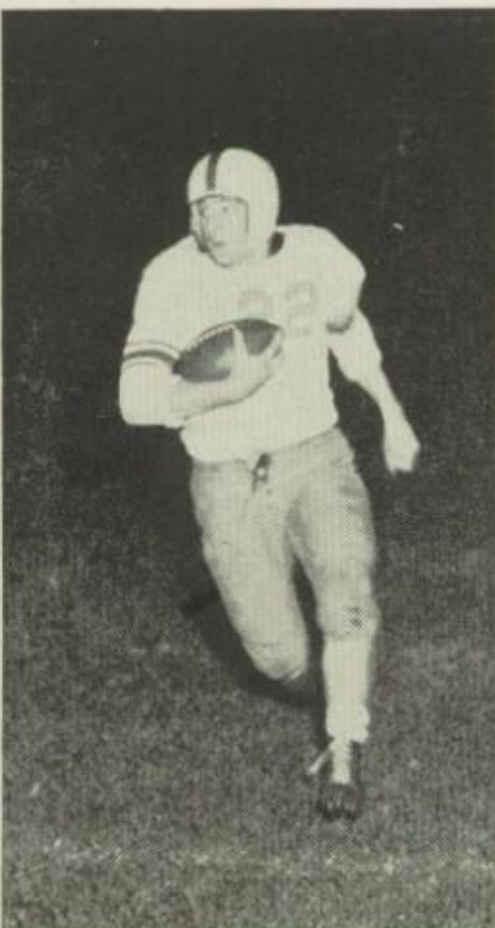

Charles Smith was just seventeen years old, called away just when he was going to be a regular on the football team. But if Smitty could have seen how his friends felt about him, he would have been a mighty happy boy.

Since Smitty died, the by-word, the winning word of the teams, has been, "This one's for Smitty." Even our retreat master brought in the "Remember Smitty" theme to remind us to make a good retreat for it may be our last.

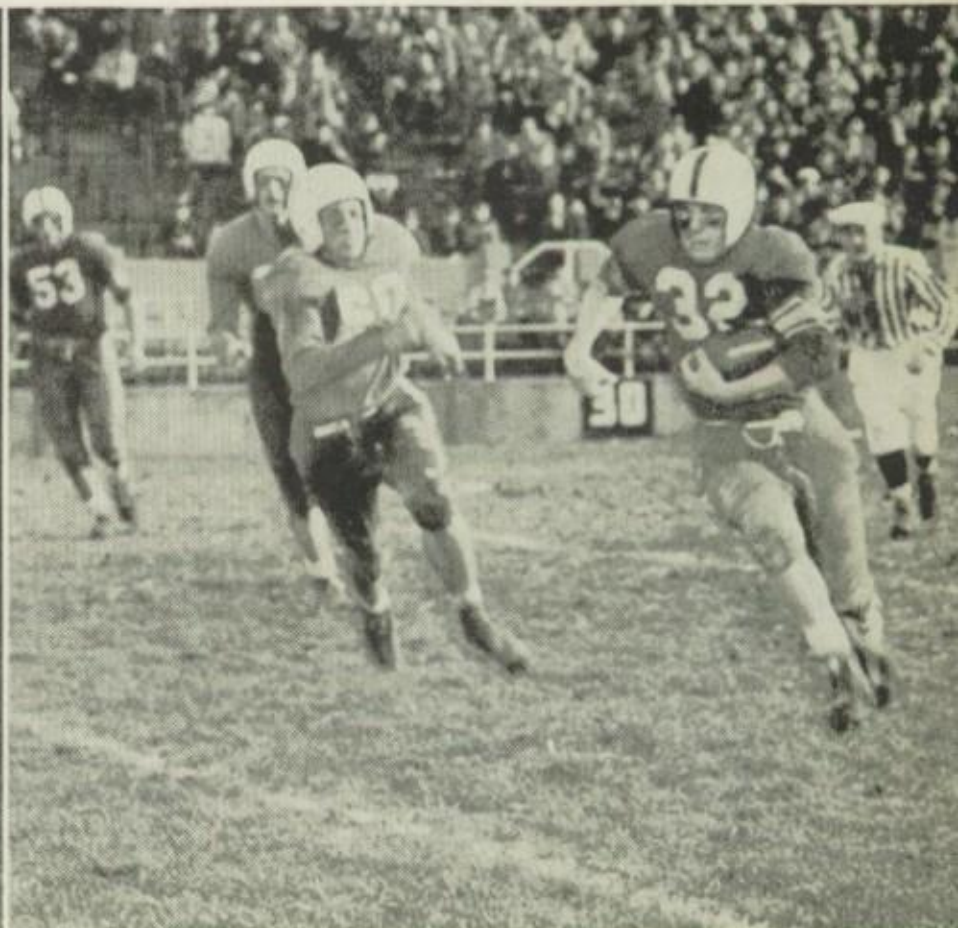

Dick Kiley grabs the pigskin and does a "jig" before heading for pay dirt against Erlanger Lloyd.

Jack Martin looks surprised to find himself all alone with mascot Dick Niehaus tagging along behind.

Smart blocking by Purcell enables "Dutch" Bolger to slip loose and score a T. D. for the Cavaliers against "X."

Season's Tallies

14 — Newport Catholic 6

The Cavaliers snatched their initial victory of the '48" campaign from a surprisingly tough Thoroughbred team, 14-6. Bolger starred by racking up 2 T.D.'s as Dorger converted both.

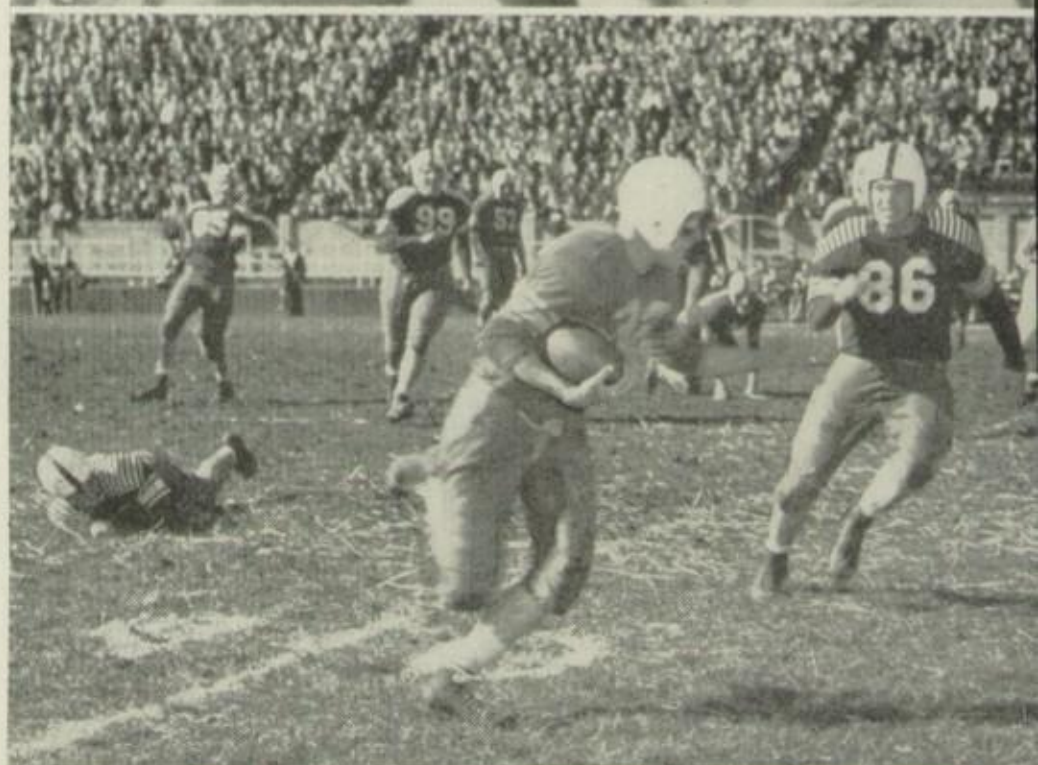

Jim Bolger plows through the Hamilton Catholic line as Degaro does a waltz in the background.

14 — Chaminade 12

The Purcell gridders for the second straight week sweated out a close victory as Bolger again showed the way with a T.D., and Tom Dorger's toe provided the margin of victory.

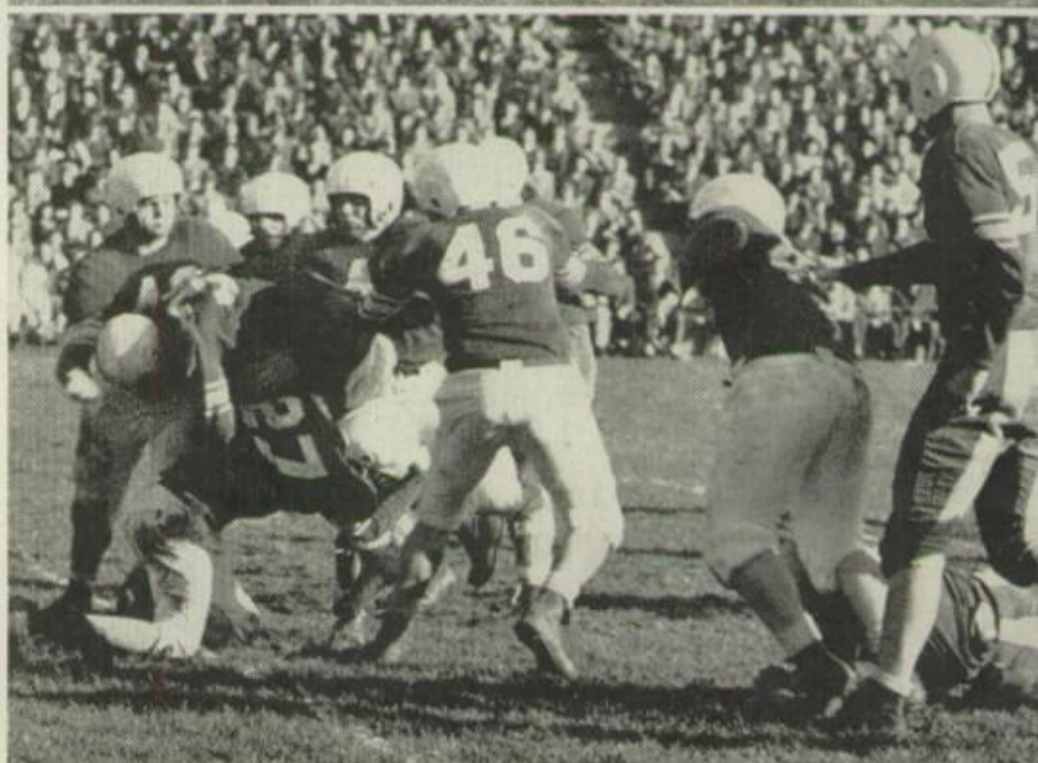

Slipping loose from one would-be tackler, Bolger finds the going tougher as he goes up the field.

20 — Hughes 38

In the opener of the annual interleague doubleheader Jim Dooley & Co. handed Purcell their first setback of the year 38-20. Bolger's 95-yard kickoff return reclaimed the evening.

Hebbeler bulldozes through the line, while Elder men give that extra push for a first down.

18 — Western Hills 6

After spotting the Maroons 6 points, the Cavalier gridders came back with 18 points in the second half, thus gaining revenge for last year's defeat which ended a 33-game win streak.

"Dutch" Bolger shakes loose for a gain; "Monster" Schneider moves in for the kill.

6 — Withrow 14

The Tigers from Withrow came out on the long end of the 14-6 score for the first time in the history of the rivalry between the two neighboring schools.

39 — Hamilton Catholic 13

The Cavaliers had little more than a workout as virtually every man on the squad got a crack at the Rams. Krueger, Hall, Martin, Gardner, Bolger, Dorger, and Poynter added points as Purcell downed their upstate rivals.

A quick pass, Degaro to Muldoon, again catches Lloyd by surprise, and nets just another touchdown.

53 — Lloyd 0

Purcell enjoyed their second field day of the year at the expense of Lloyd. From the opening kickoff right down to the first gun the boys from Kentucky were up against too much.

Jack Martin gets away from one tackler only to be brought down by a "Flying Eagle."

19 — Roger Bacon 15

The Cavaliers struck fast and furious and fairly often against the Spartans, scoring twice on the same play within 30 seconds, a pass from Degaro to Bolger in the left flank.

"Dutch" Bolger looks bewildered as West High's Sample pulls him down. Muldoon comes to the rescue.

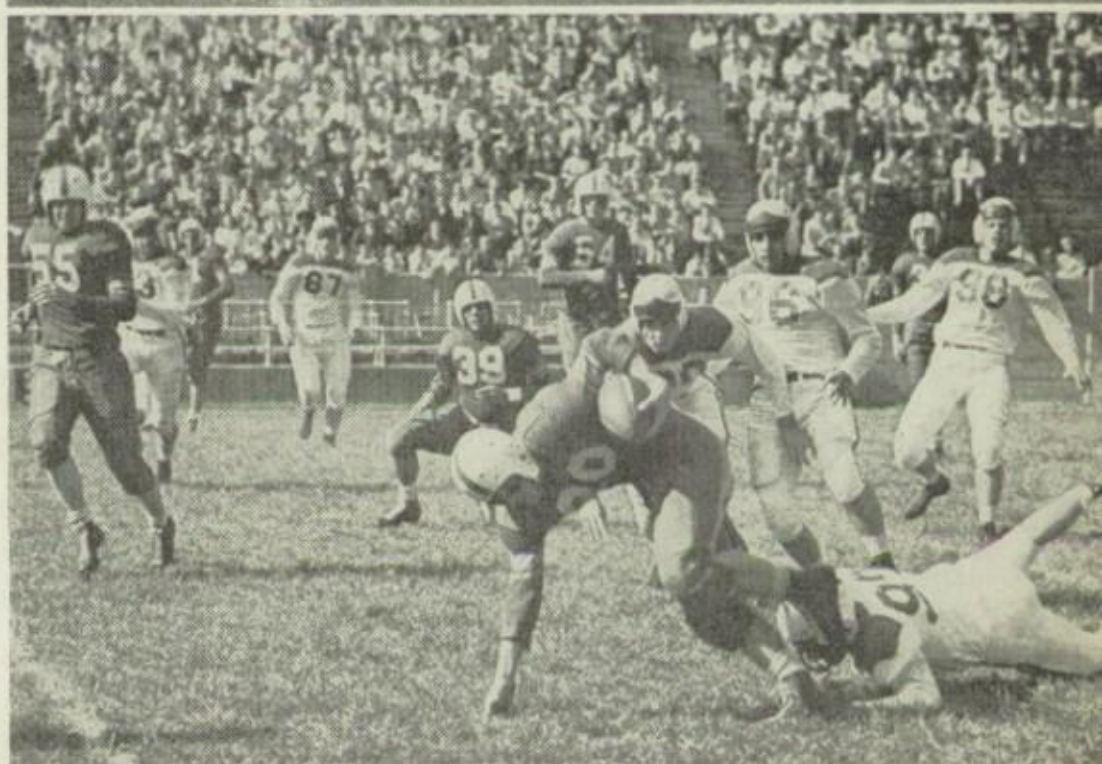

14 — Elder 6

By slapping the Panthers all over their new stadium to the tune of 14-6, Purcell took over first place in the G. C. L., grabbing their second victory in as many tries.

Bolger out-maneuvers Withrow's Dick Ernst by a quick change of pace and heads for the side lines.

7 — St. Xavier 25

The Cavaliers said good-bye to the "48" season suffering their worst setback of the year, 25-7. Stan Schneider ruined Purcell's chances of a clean sweep in the G. C. L., scoring all four of X's T.D.'s.

Reserves Intercept City Title

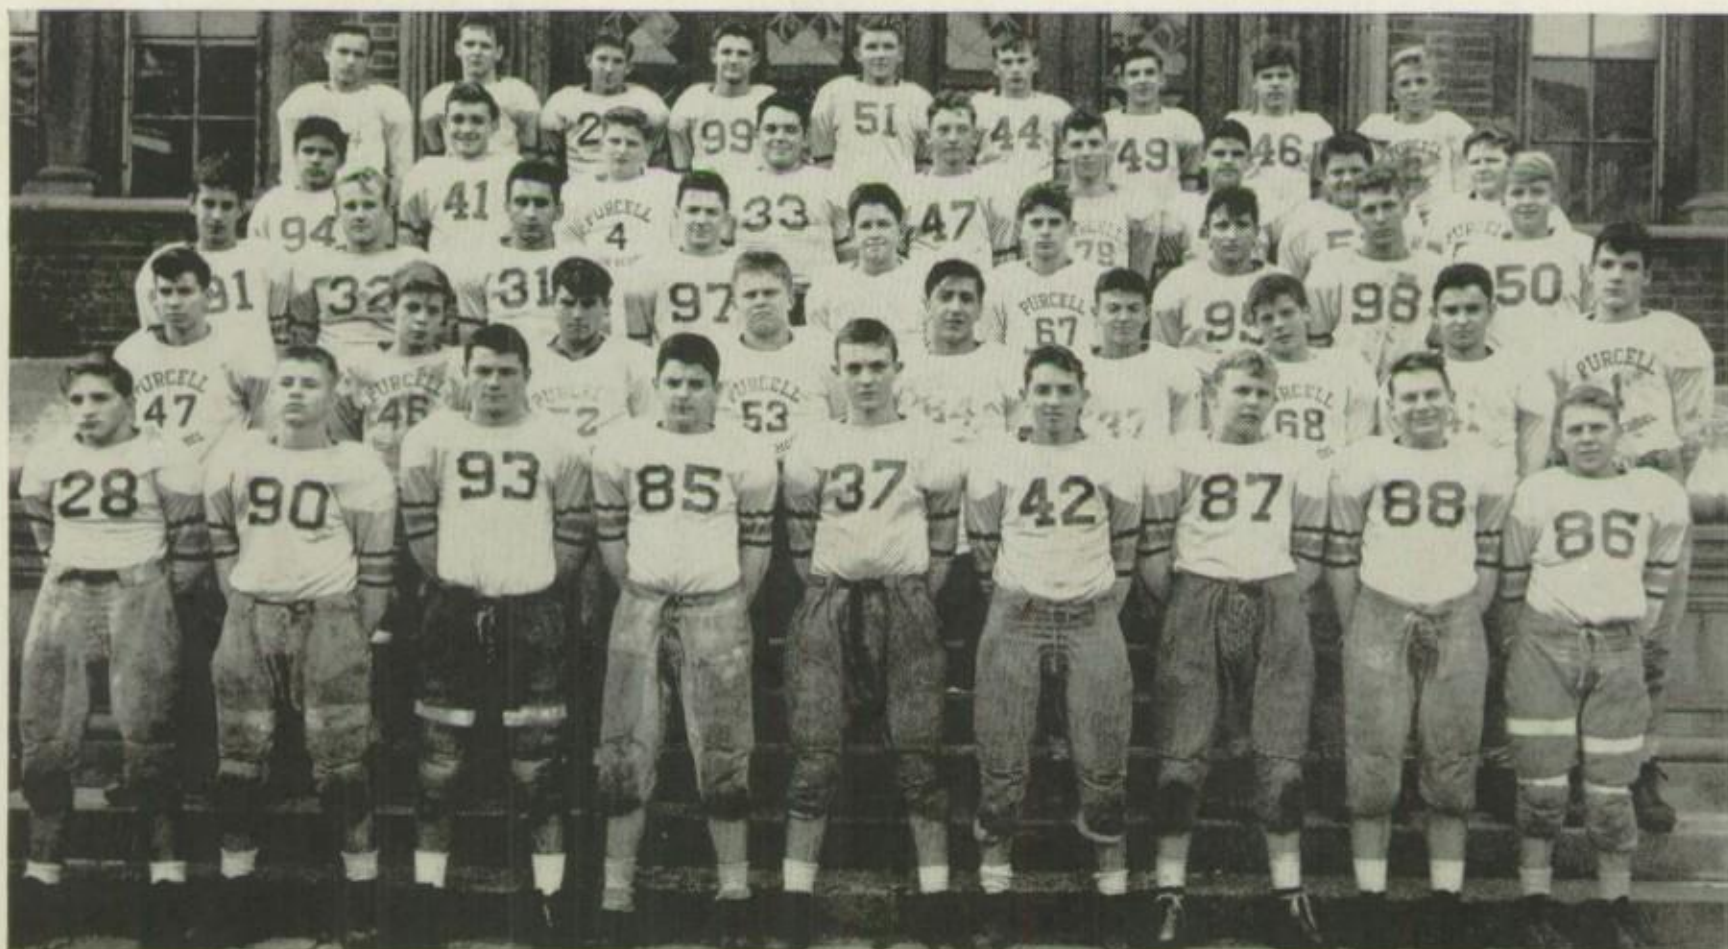

COMPILING an enviable record of eight wins against a single loss, the Cavalier juniors proved themselves one of the best reserve squads in town.

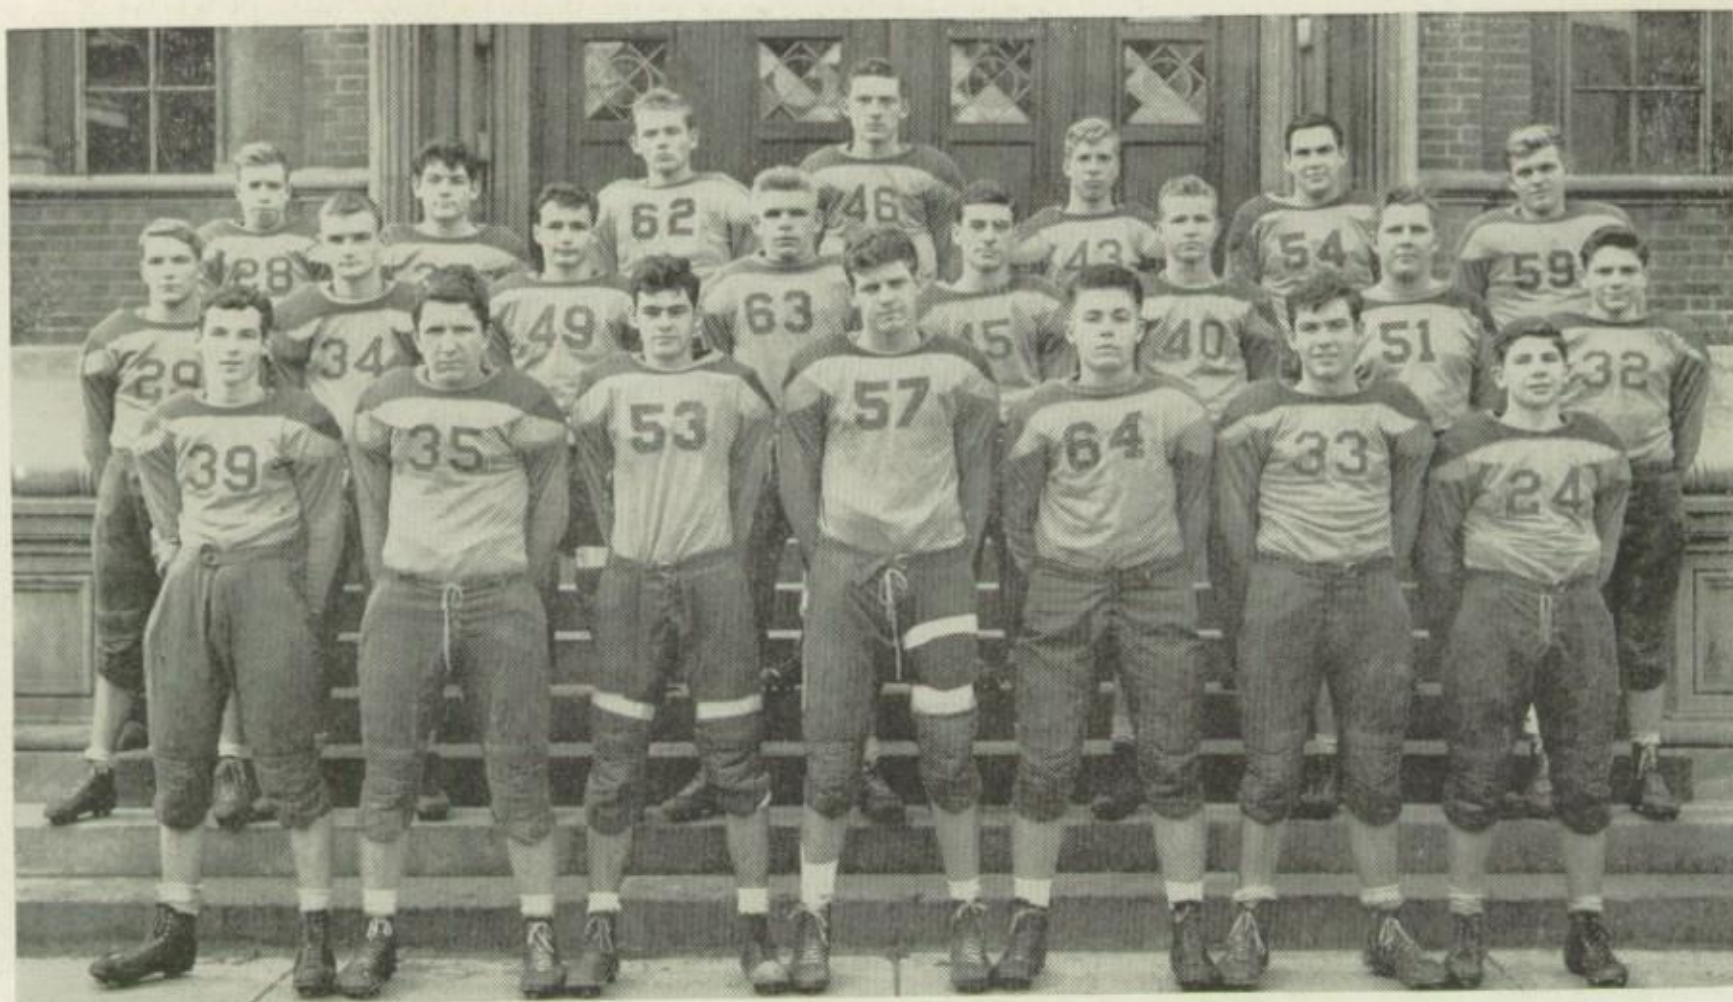

Under the capable direction of Coach Jack Hanlon, the reserves, by virtue of a trio of victories, assumed the championship of the Catholic League. The true scale of the Cavaliers' power may be readily seen from their amassing of 182 points, while holding their foes to but 13 markers. The Crimson line, small in stature but large in heart, was built around two hard-charging tackles, Jim Duffy and Roger Towle. Holding down the important guard spots were John Belperio and Tony Fries, both demons on defense. Bolstering the Cavalier line was John Willenbrink, a capable pivotman. Quarterback Billy Graham, a slick passer, often found the mark with aerials to his glue-fingered ends, Ron Beagle and Joe MacVeigh. Two classy ball-carriers were half-back Jim Kramer and Tom O'Neil, while a big offensive threat was Bob Leonard, Cavalier fullback.

Yearlings Battle To Place Second

IT WAS a tough start for our two new freshman coaches John Hyle and Leonard Matuzewski when the Frosh dropped the first games to public highs but by the end of the season they had fought their way to second place in the G.C.L. In their two winning games against St. Xavier and Roger Bacon the Cavaliers were so decidedly superior that one might think he were watching an undefeated team.

Though the Elder game was a loss the score at halftime was Purcell 12 — Elder 0. It was hard fought and the kind of game that, win or lose, makes real football players. Captain of this year's freshman team was center Elbert Burns. Another outstanding lineman was tackle Charles Wenzel. Chris Grote, Fred Sulken and Jim Bur are promising backfield men.

Students can confidently rest their football hopes on these fellows, for though you can't pick out the future all-city men, you know they are there.

Cheerleaders debate on the next cheer, as Johnny Neumaier sleeps during a crucial moment in the Central game and Swope expresses concern.

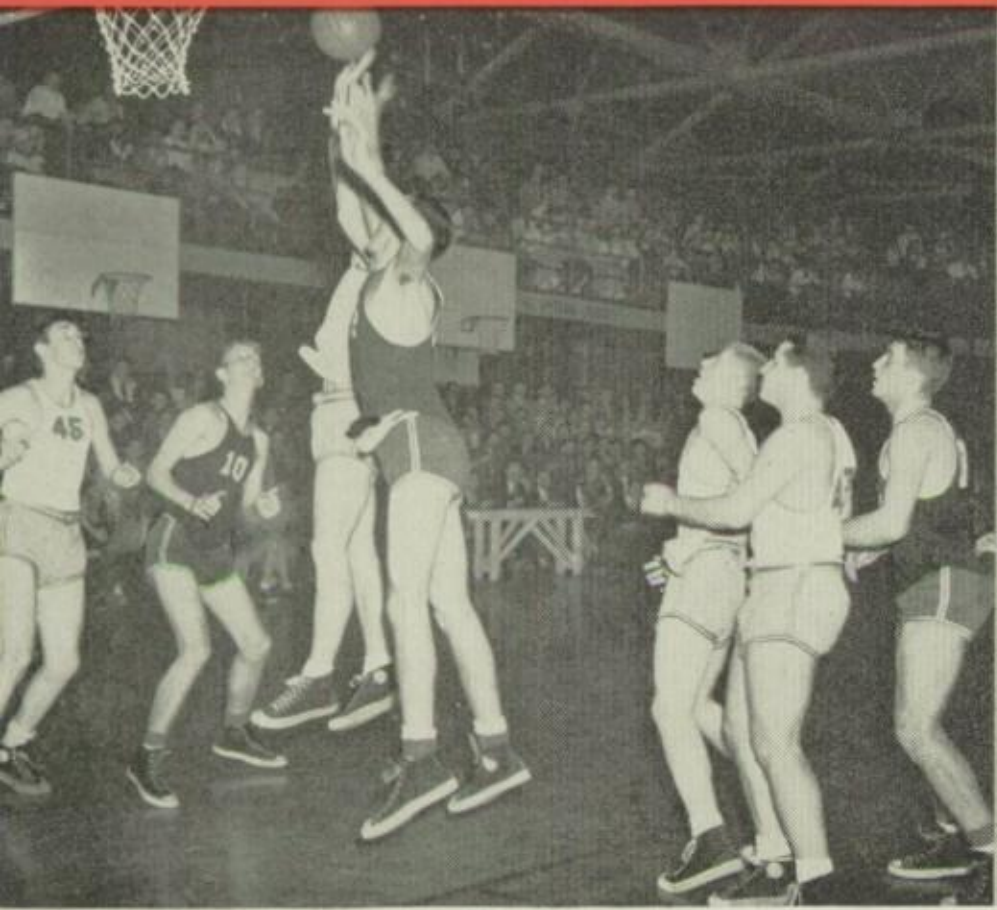

Coach McCarthy calls the team together at a time-out to give a pep talk. Degaro shows a sheepish grin and Westerkamp comments on the "Ref."

1,218 Points Net Hackberry Hoopsters

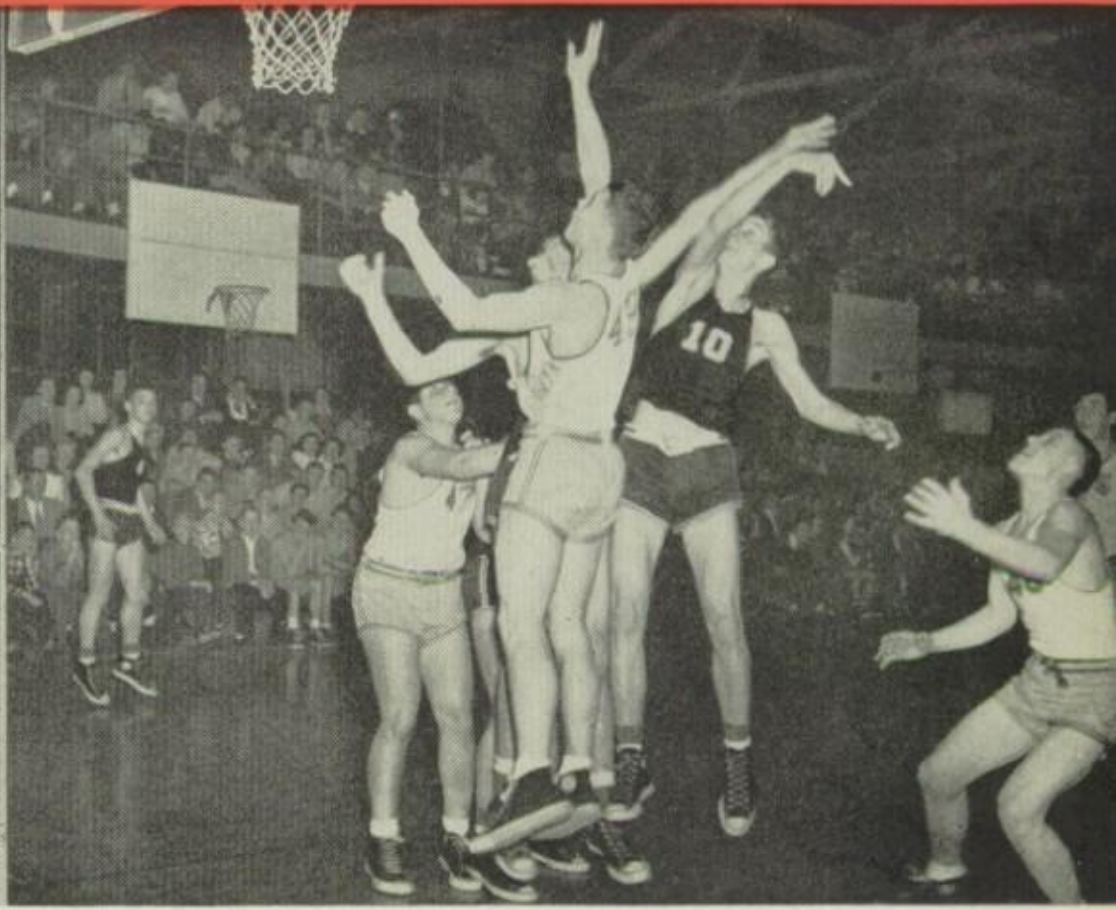

COMPILING an enviable record of 19 won — 5 lost, this year's edition of the Cavalier cagers was the highest scoring team in the history of the Hackberry Street edifice. Averaging slightly over fifty points a game the Cavaliers rang up 1,218 markers. In GCCL competition the Cavaliers earned a co-championship by winning four of six games. Highest point producer throughout the season was Joe Degaro, senior forward who rang up 249 points. In addition, "Dee" proved himself a nemesis to opposing players with his tight defensive work. Two Jim's — Cucinotta, 212, and Westerkamp, 223, the Crimson guards, were consistent scorers also, both totaling over 200 markers. Westerkamp, a junior, was a crowd thriller with his timely long-shots. Captain Cucinotta was a "dead" shot from outside the foul circle and was undoubtedly one of the finest ball-handlers ever to don the Crimson and Gold. Jim Bolger, junior forward, was a slick ball handler and a good shot from the side. "Dutch" threw in 125 points during the campaign. Rounding out the first five was Bill Hall, a good rebounder, who copped 120 points. Bill, at 6' 3", was the tallest player on the first five. Another senior, Joe Niemann, who occupied the second guard slot, proved himself to Cavalier fans through his artistry in sinking long shots from mid-floor. Other boys who performed capably were Tom Cash, Jim Anaruma and Bob Leonard.

Hall outjumps Norwood's Farmer and racks up two points. The Indian boys look on helplessly as Degaro and Westerkamp wait for a rebound.

Degaro makes a hook shot while a Walnut Hillsman tries to block it in vain. Cucinotta puts on the brakes.

"You can't have it," shouts "Dutch" Bolger as Griewe of Walnut Hills climbs up his back. "Don't call it, ref," yell his fellow Eagles."

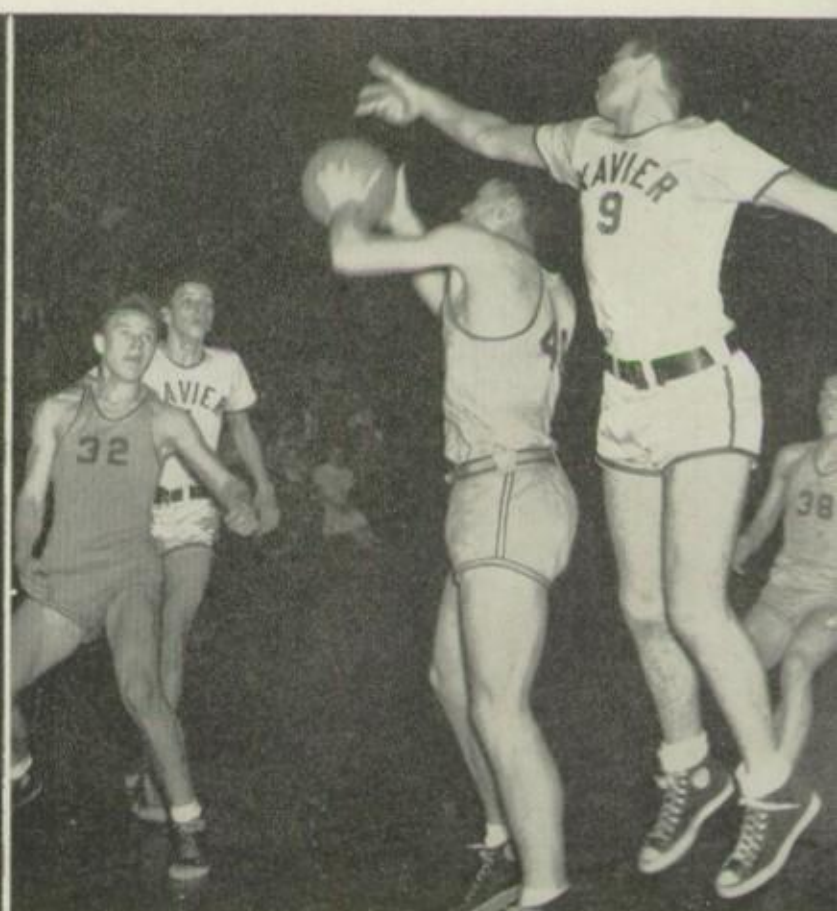

Fast Breaks, Accurate Passing And Set-shots

Long Tom Cash gets up for the rebound as Hall tries to locate that other leg.

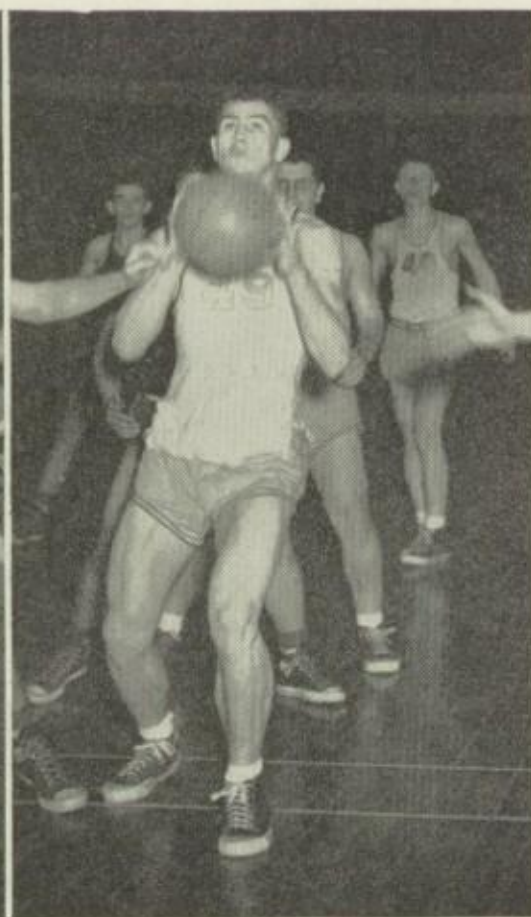

"Gimme dat ball!" Bolger grabs the ball from an "X" Bomber, but Degaro gave up.

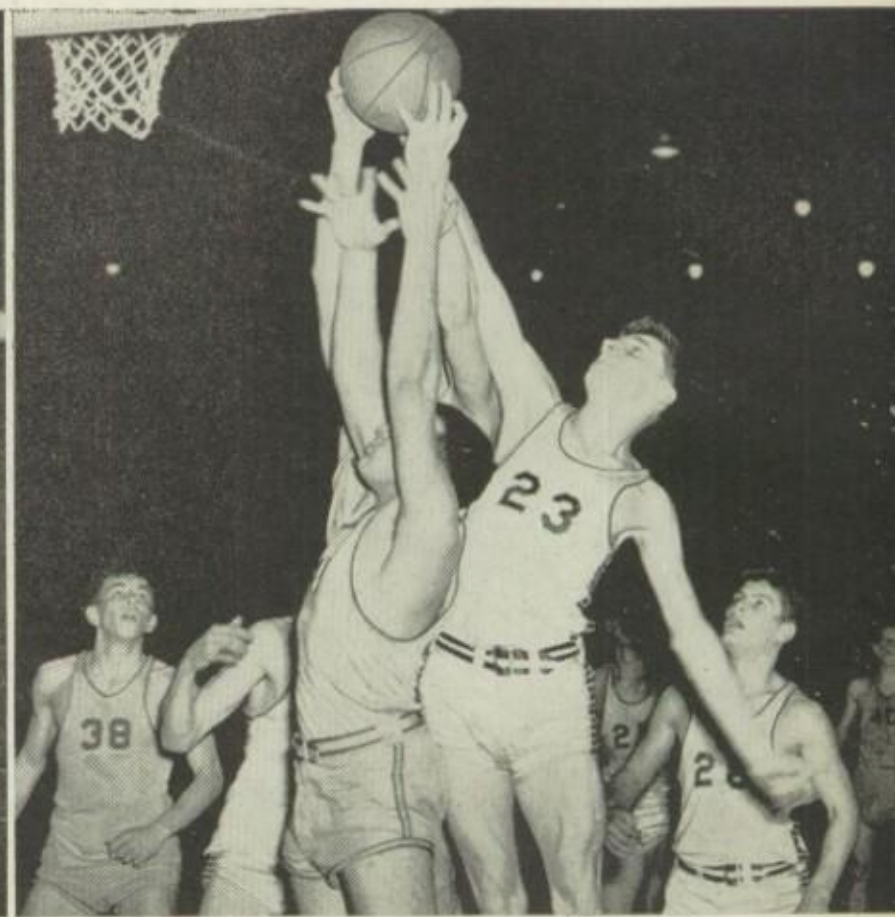

"If I had the wings of an angel." Budde flies above Grogan, but Bolger makes the shot.

Xavier's bench looks on admiringly as "Cuci" gives them a lesson in the art of dribbling.

Hall ignores the Norwood boy's handshake, whistles "Dixie," and racks up two points.

Cucinotta wonders whether Degaro will get the ball; that's Hall out-jumping them all.

Thrill Five Thousand Hardwood Fanatics

The Elder man goes into a ballet stance, but Bill Hall tries hard and makes two points.

The ball bounds out of reach as Cash outjumps his opponents. Watch the elbow, Bub!

PURCELL'S J.V.'s with a total of sixteen games won and two defeats, and those by close scores, really had a bang-up season. Facing an extremely tough schedule, the reserves lost only one city game, that being to the Maroons of Western Hills by the score of 27-25. Only Newport Catholic, besides West Hi's reserves, were able to come out on top of the tough-to-beat reserves by the score of 27-26.

Coached by capable Jack Hunt, former Purcell star, the J.V.'s worked hard enough at all the points of the game till they were able to take the junior G.C.L. championship by winning all six league games, beating St. X, Elder, and Roger Bacon, each twice.

FOLLOWING in the footsteps of last year's Frosh, who won 27 games, these fellows played through a magnificent season. Working hard under their new coach, Jack Hanlon, they amassed a win total of 28. Among freshman teams of the GCL they were quite successful in their competition with Elder and St. Xavier, whom they beat twice. Roger Bacon, however, proved to be a double barreled threat as they cut down the Cavaliers with winning scores of 34-18, and 38-20.

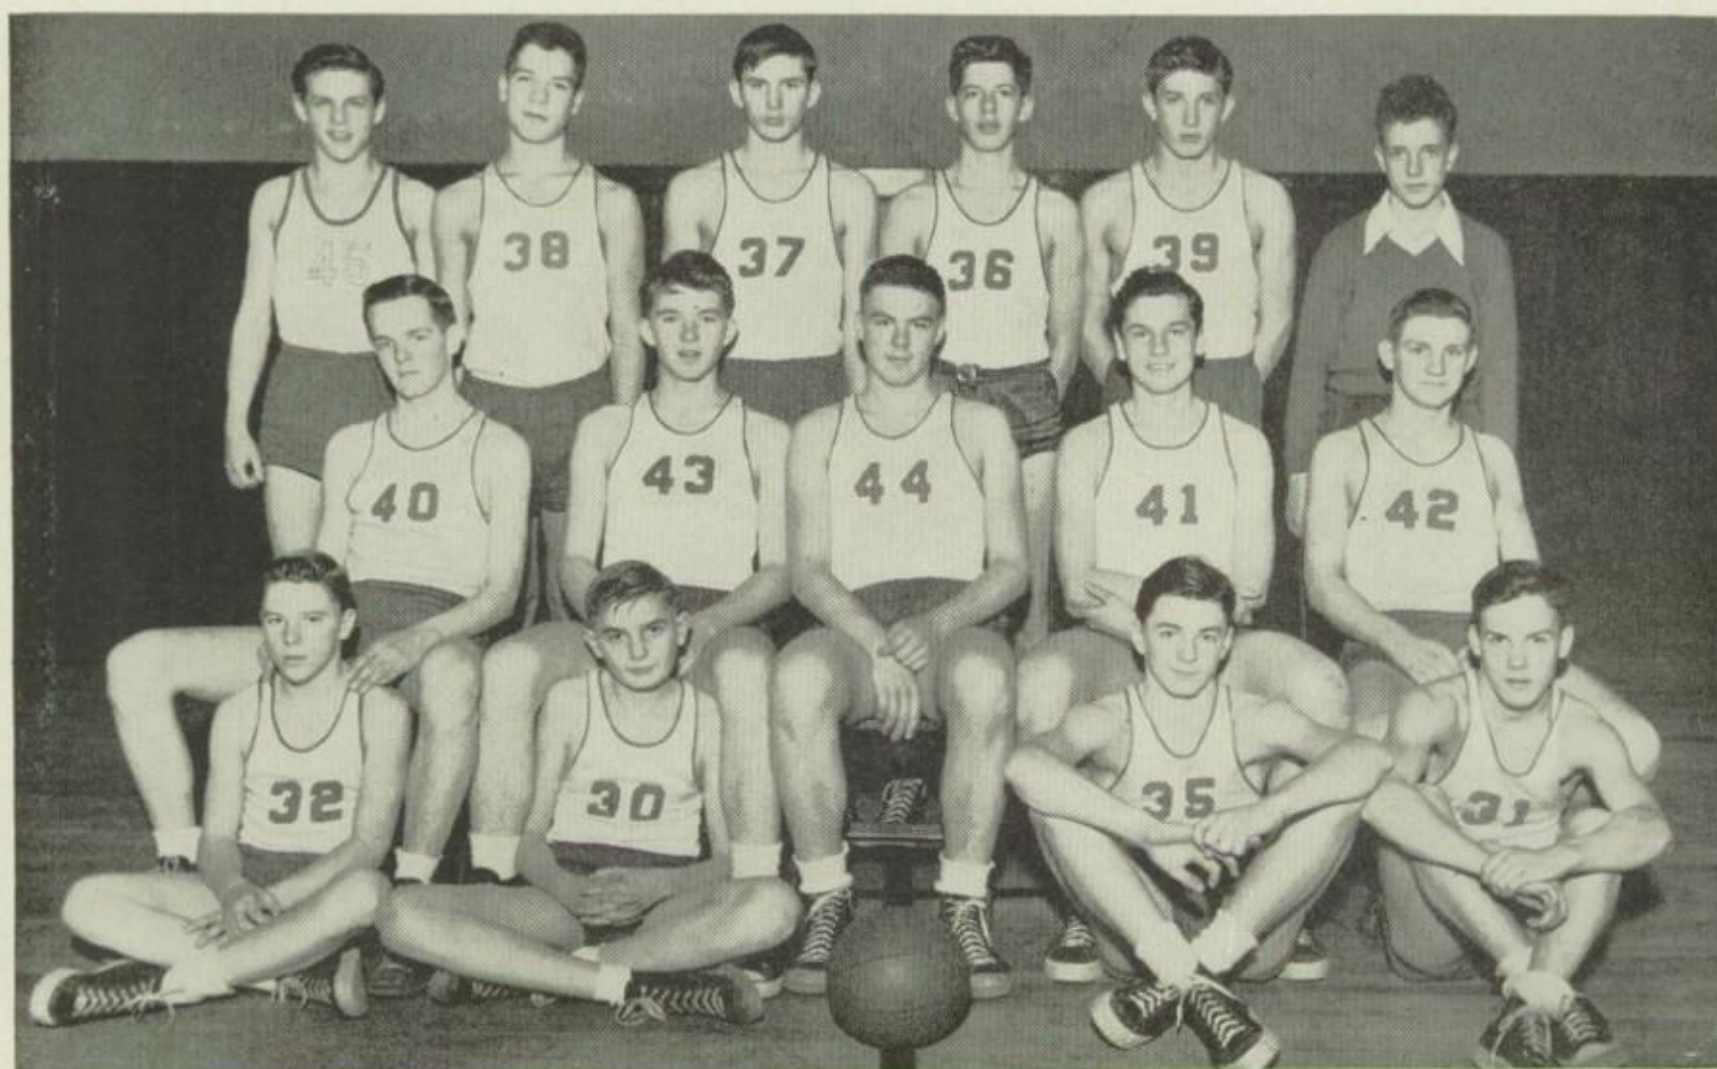

The Public High teams should have taken lessons from Purcell as none of them were skillful enough to manage a victory.

By playing consistently hard defense and developing new attacks, fellows such as Paul Berwanger, Elbert Burns, Pat Evans, Larry Early, Bill Hctor, did their part to merit praise for such a successful season. Freshman teams of this calibre are a good forecast of outstanding varsities and the optimism of Cavaliers for the future rises.

Musclemen Highlight Purcell's Prowess

THE Cavalier tracksters took to the turf with bright possibilities of copping the GCCL crown. Brother Bill Schroeder and Jack Hanlon were on hand to welcome back a host of lettermen. Handling the dashes are Don Gardner and Joseph Russo, while on hand for the middle distances Purcell has Jack Molloy and "Duke" Udry. Larry Gunderson and Jim Poynter are strong candidates for the longer distances. The hurdling events will be capably taken care of by Udry and Lowell Kuntz. Running the mile relay are four experienced letterman, Molloy, John Feighery, Al Colussi and Udry, all seniors. In the field events Cavalier fans look for Bob Paul to clear fabulous heights in the high-jump and Gardner and Russo to hit 20 feet in the broad-jump.

The Cavaliers rely heavily upon the efforts of their two fine weight men, John McPhillips and Tom Dorger for the discus and shot put.

THE aspiring baseball players of the Cavalier castle take to the diamond, under the leadership of Jack Hunt, who takes over John McAndrews' mentor position.

Starting from behind the bat, joltin' Joe Degaro looks like a cinch for the catching job; Clyde Corken moves over to third while Joe Niemann will probably start at short. Don Daly will play the keystone sack, when he is not pitching; otherwise Bill Niehaus will take over. First is a toss up among three good men — Bill Hall, Tom Cash, and Jerry Silvati.

The pitching staff consists of Stan Biedenharn, Mike Rohde, John Ruf, Bob Dermody, Vic Como, and Pat Palumbo.

Out in the greener pastures we find Junie Doggett (LF) Jim Bolger (CF), and Jim Anaruma (RF).

Great things are expected of this team and the rookies alike.

Senior D

IN THE Senior division 4-D emerged as the champs with a record of six victories against a single loss. Their sole defeat was at the hands of 4-A, whom they downed in a rematch. Led by co-captains Tom Hunninghake and Pat Palumbo, the 4-D boys entered the school play-offs where they successfully defended the title by downing 3-C and 2-C.

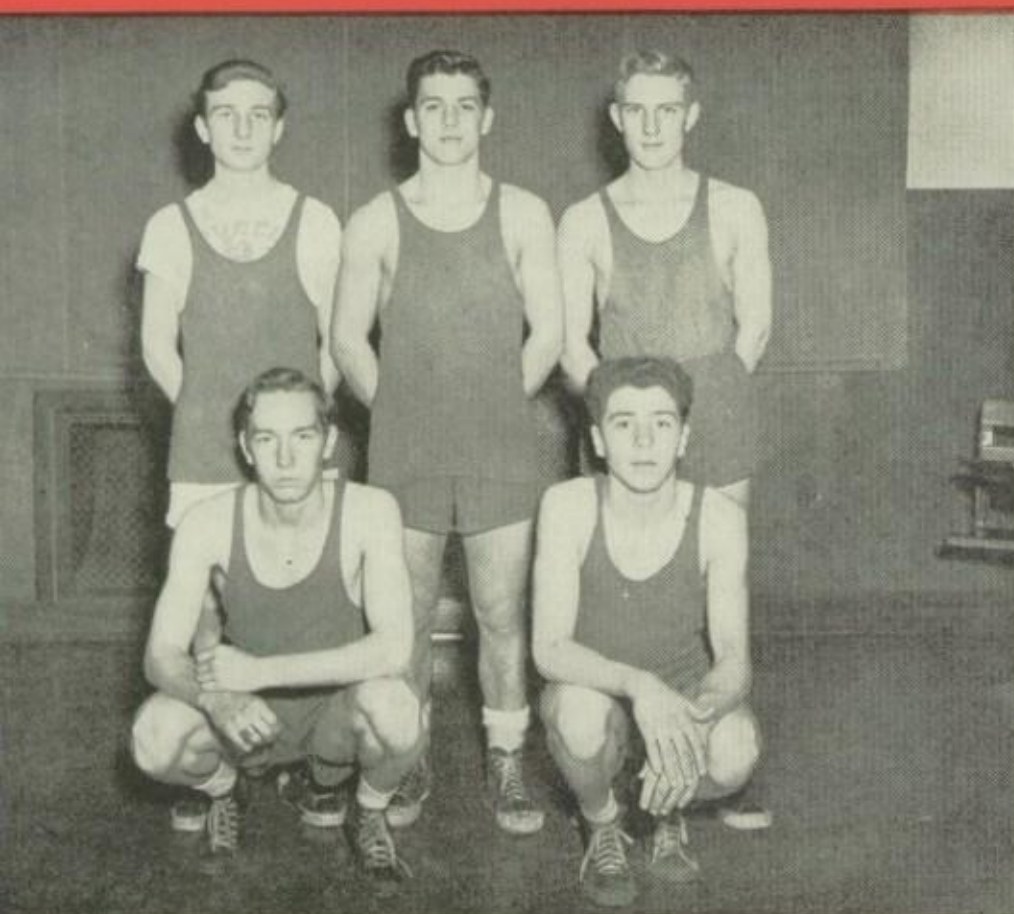

High scorer for the season was John Schleuter, while other boys who performed well were Larry Welage, Don Mills, Pat Palumbo, George Fisher, and Tom Hunninghake.

FINISHING with a fine record of six wins and no defeats, the basketeurs of 3-C emerged as undisputed champs. The runner-up in the junior division was 3-D, which lost only to 3-C. Brother Rossman's boys were captained by Bob Riegert, who was the high scorer throughout the season. Other members of Junior C who performed capably during the campaign were Jim Poynter, Lowell Kuntz, Bob McGowan, Jerry Grueter, Bill Fitzpatrick.

Vying For Coveted Divisional Leadership

THE foremost team among the Sophomores this year was Bro. Victor Brown's homeroom, 2-C. Remaining undefeated, they picked up seven wins from other Sophomore squads.

Pitted against the Freshman champs, they strengthened their claims once more by victory. It took Senior D with its tall manpower to put them under, 30 to 21, in the final intramural game of the season.

Obviously this Sophomore homeroom was well stocked with basketball players as two of its members, Tom Cash and Jerry Scardina, played varsity and reserve respectively.

BY winning eight consecutive games, homeroom I-H fought its way to victory in the Freshman division. By this accomplishment they gained the privilege of engaging the leading Sophomore team, which handed the Frosh their first defeat. Among the qualities prominent in the team as a whole was its ability to play consistently good ball the entire season, much to the satisfaction of homeroom teacher Brother Joseph Jansen.

In keeping with the custom of choosing standouts, we must especially mention the fine work of George Barnett, Joseph Feuchter and Larry Gates, team captain.

FEELING that they are headed for a successful season, Purcell's linksmen are conscientiously following the directives of their coach, Father William Boyle.

Heartened by last year's record of wins in the Greater Cincinnati High School Golf Championship, the district tournament, and Tri-State tournament, they are confident that this is only a portent of things to come.

Their loss of Captain Jack Richter, Don Rudolph, and Bob Foppe, is balanced by the return of Jim Grady, Bill Foppe, and Dick Criswell.

Grady gave a notable account of himself last season, capturing the lowest score of the school tournament, and emerging with second place in individual scores at Columbus.

With such talent their high hopes should be fulfilled with equal success.

STUDENT interest in this rugged sport is definitely increasing as evidenced by the large turnout at the beginning of the season.

The first meet, which was with Western Hills, gave the Cavaliers a poor start with a loss, but they tasted victory on the rebound by defeating Norwood 22-23. It was a tough meet for Purcell when Withrow was the victorious opponent. In the tri-squad meet, however, with Walnut Hills and Norwood, Purcell took second place, edging Norwood by one point. It was sixth place for our side in the District Meet as Larry Gunderson ran fifteenth among 165 starters.

UNDER the able guidance of Brother Gilbert Gensler, the Cavalier netters again take to the court, confident of bettering last year's record. With such veterans from last year as Don Boerger, "Yitz" Arbino, Chuck Hertlein, Paul Litkowski, Bob Hamilton, Bob Priebe and Dean Weber, we should have a capable team. Although last year's record was disappointing, nevertheless it was an improvement over '47; and with hard practice, we should have a team of championship calibre in the not too distant future. Especially encouraging is the large number of freshmen and sophomores who came out for the team.

OF THE nine different sports participated in here at the Cavalier Castle, the mermen of Purcell probably deserve the most praise. For although its duration runs six full months of the school year many afternoons a week, it is still considered a minor sport and receives practically no publicity or credit.

However, this means nothing to the team nor to their hard-working coach, Fr. Herman Kenning. They did their best, and gave St. Xavier a run for their money for the first place stall in the Greater Cincinnati Catholic League lineup.

Still, discontent with this second, Co-captains Mike Rohde and Jack Ruf, along with Bob McDevitt, Whitey Holtgreffe, and Rocky Morrissey, composed a greater freestyle relay team, took it to the state meet at Columbus and made a very fine showing.

Other carriers of the Crimson and Gold were Dean Weber and John Linesch, who were both freestylers, and Dave Dumbacher who swam both freestyle and backstroke. Captain John Ruf had helpers in the breast stroke, who were Jim Gauthier and Harvey Bernens, while Morrissey held the 200 yard free-style position for himself.

Determined Band Members Strive Hard To

THE SHRILL whistle of the drum major, the crash of cymbals and the roll of drums, the stadium lights out, the raised baton of the conductor . . . These were the signs which told us throughout the past year that our band, probably the greatest Purcell has ever seen and undoubtedly one of the city's best, was about to perform.

Many were the performances for the spirited fifty-three-piece ensemble which traveled to nine city gridiron contests and one game in Hamilton, where along with the colored hat-light system, foot lights were introduced.

Credits were gained by band members through report card grades and consequently band practices were considered regular classes and were more frequent.

Musical training was furthered still by the bringing of professional teachers to the school to give instrument lessons, while at band rehearsals mistakes were detected by a recording machine which played back the newly-learned numbers.

Overcoming a handicap of having lost sixteen members of the band in graduation, the new director, Brother Frank Russell, doubled his efforts and produced double results, in that two concerts were given instead of one. The addition came at Christmas-time and turned out to be a grand success, rendering all the Yuletide favorites plus such outstanding compositions as "The Gypsy Festival", "Rhapsody in Blue" and, for the moderns, a fine rendition of "Boogie Woogie".

The second half of the year found Mr. Hubert Buschle and Brother Russell hard at work on the annual spring production, which this year was planned to be a variety show and was titled "Music Festival."

But at the same time, music had to be furnished on countless occasions, such as the Holy Name Parade, the Football Banquet, basket ball games, Senior Class Play, dramatic shows and other engagements.

On three consecutive nights in May, the Cavalier band climaxed the school year with a series of brilliant performances, under the direction of Mr. Buschle.

"Music Festival" was well fulfilled by the band's version of "Oklahoma Overture," "Valse Triste," "Soldier's March" from "Faust" and many others, plus a host of well-known quests.

Certainly Purcell will long remember the Cavalier's Band of 1949.

Yuletide Concert Novelty For Music Makers

Purcell's own "Maestro" Buschle poses with a Christmas tree headpiece at the band's Christmas Concert.

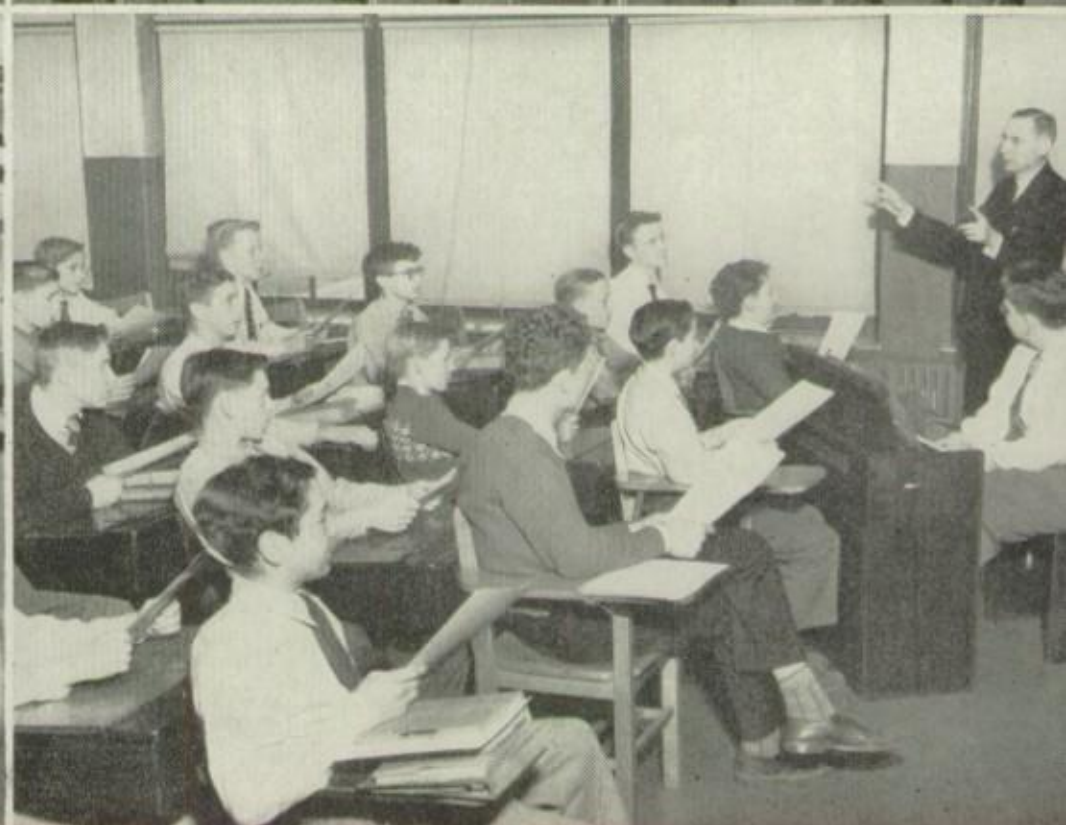

"Silent Night." As Bro. Schneider directs the Glee Club in that traditional carol, the band listens.

The band goes Harry James four better with R. Benz, J. Jansen, J. Schmidt and W. Gramke as concert soloists.

Managers Paul Roetting, Dick Coyne, and Dick Schramm, pause in their labors to give us a friendly smile.

"No, NO, G not E"! Bro. Schneider beats time and Giles Pater plays the accompaniment.

The camera catches another glimpse of the musicmakers giving out with that Christmas Joy.

Luke Leonard and Dean Weber, M. C. Paul Palmisano introduces another band arrangement.

The angelic looking "Glee Club" presents the Cavaliers with yuletide melodies at the Christmas assembly.

Cavalier Vocalists Entertain

TONSILS? They've got "a million of 'em." In fact where would the choral group be if it were not for their frequent exercising of the more vociferous parts of their anatomy?

Begun with the intent of defraying wasted energy expended in manifesting their undesired vocal ability on school time, and channeling it into more useful outlets, the group has succeeded marvelously. Brother Francis Schneider has modulated these varying degrees of musical talent into a well-rounded organization.

Since its beginning less than two years ago, the choral group has already become an intrinsic part of school life, performing on such occasions as the Christmas festivities of the Welfare Association and the annual Freshman and Sophomore retreat.

Several weeks of special practice were devoted entirely to the then forthcoming Christmas Band Concert, in which they played a major part.

Drum major Bill Udry along with his satellites performs before the Cavalier stands or before the ladies, at half time.

Marching Band Entertains Spectators At Halftime

Music Corps Initiates Junior Band

THE first year of this organization has shown the signs of value greater than its initiators had dared hope for. The student's first step in band music among boys of the same limited experience makes for a competitive spirit, the desire to shine.

The members play something they enjoy and see the potentialities brought out by developing their latent talent more. The sometimes monotonous work of a boy at his instrument becomes to him the opportunity to be better. Brother Frank Russell used many methods to strengthen certain sections and the band in general but these fellows will have more to do with it than anyone.

For them there could be no better than Mr. Hubert Buschle. Playing under him, one gets patient, personal instruction and genuine friendly advice.

Graduating into the senior band, the young Cavalier experiences the satisfaction of accomplishment, which is as all good things, a foretaste of things greater.

Verbal Duelists Point For City Trophy

PROBABLY every Cavalier has noticed at one time or another that there is a group of young orators around the Cavalier Castle who take quite an interest in going from school to school and engaging in verbal conflict with similar groups from other schools.

These "titans of the tongue" make up the Purcell senior Debaters, a group of speakers who are ever going forward in quest of trophies, pins, and the other "loot" of forensic victory.

Spurred on constantly and motivated by a desire to increase their rating in the National Forensic League, this group has undertaken several journeys to such distant points as Hamilton, Springfield and other Ohio cities.

On several occasions these "Gabaliers" have brought home distinction and honor to their Castle.

Having tied for the trophy in both a Southwestern Ohio District Tournament and in the tournament sponsored by the Greater Cincinnati Speech League, these boys went on to greater glory in tournaments throughout the state.

The Debaters put their whole heart and voice into their work as anyone who has ever passed Room 27 during a practice session will testify.

Fledglings Sharpen Foils

THERE is an old saying that mighty oaks from tiny acorns grow. The Junior Debaters under the guidance of Brother Charles Rossman have proceeded in the last few years to prove the validity of this statement.

The Junior Debaters are an organization set up primarily to prepare underclassmen to become top-notch debators in years that follow. This is one of the few scholastic organizations in the school that allows underclassmen to become active members.

Paul Palmisano's words carry weight with discussion leaders during the Junior Town Meeting of the Air.

This year the Junior Debaters have a membership of ten, and they have enjoyed numerous successes. Their chief undertaking thus far has been the tournament at Hamilton.

Under Brother Rossman's guidance, these juniors have practice debates among themselves and at times are paired with the first-stringers for competitive practice. It is this practice which means progress and advancement toward becoming a stalwart member of Purcell's Gabaliers.

Bro. Rossman's boys spend long periods using library facilities to prepare fresh material for their arguments.

Active Mission Crusade Protects Students'

"THE World for the Sacred Heart, The Sacred Heart for the world." This is the motto of the C.S.M.C., which under the leadership of its moderator Father Eugene Gallagher and its officers — President Paul Roetting, Secretary John Johannigman, Treasurer John Schlueter and regional President Paul Palmisano — has promoted an extensive plan of prayer, work and sacrifice.

The membership this year was well over seven hundred. The Purcell unit gave a dance to defray the cost of the Shield and also played host for the first regional dance held December 10. The first regional meeting was also held at Purcell. Once more Purcell Crusaders conducted a medical supply drive for the sisters in China. Tobacco was also collected for the Old Folks Home, and our unit promoted prayer and sacrifice at retreat time.

Future plans include preparation for the Oratorical Contest and the Lenten Self Denial Fund.

Mathematics Honor Society

MULTIPLICATION of Roman numerals, the fourth dimension, cube root, determination of pi — these were but a few of the many interesting topics discussed during the year in the Math Club's lively monthly meetings.

This year's club, under the capable guidance of Brother Bernard Jansen, soared to new heights in the varied fields of mathematics.

Along with its own special projects, the Cavalieri Chapter of the National Mathematics Honor Society, the club's official name, sponsored a social gathering for the rest of the city's Chapters at school during the month of March. Then too, many of the members, all of whom have maintained a 90 or better average in math, found time to journey up to Dayton for the fifth annual Colloquium held there — and this was the culmination of the year's numerous activities.

Bookworms Find Easy Digestion In New

"GOOD books are true friends." This well-worn adage finds fitting application in Librarians also. Scarcely a single Cavalier can say that he has not been assisted in no small degree by the coordinated efforts of Brother Francis Deibel and his competent staff of volunteer student librarians.

Aside from its time-consuming duties of organizing, marking, and checking in and out its voluminous and up-to-date collection of worthwhile reading material, the Library has found time to take an active part in sponsoring monthly Catholic Author Contests, supplying awards for the outstanding reviews of books written by Catholic authors, and in providing for a Hobby Exhibition, whereby the more industrious students may display the fruits of their leisure moments. Through its periodical organ, "Books 'n Things", it keeps the student body informed about the latest "tops" in literature, which consistently live up to their descriptions.

G-men Shadow School Socials

A GAIN this year the Service Club has come through with flying colors. For it is these students, who, under the capable leadership of Charlie Swope, their president, gave many an hour for the welfare of Purcell by taking on the role of janitor, usher, or some other task. They sold programs at the football games and took care of the check rooms and refreshment stands at our dances and Welfare meetings, always ready and willing to give up their time and pleasure for our benefit.

They shouldered many burdens and capably carried all. Numberless other chores they performed escape the eye of the average student but remain in the mind of the club members as a job well-done.

It is with a sad heart that the Senior members of this club leave Purcell. Their hard work and happy hours at the Castle are over. But in recognition of the proven ability of these members, we join in unison with the faculty in saying to you, "The Cavalier Castle will always shine with the fruits of your work!"

FROM the beginning of the football season to the end of the tournament in basketball, Purcell's yell-men have given out with their old and new cheers at every game, rain or shine. With the help of their "coach", Bro. Gensler, our cheerleaders have mastered their cheers to perfection.

During every football game all thirteen cheered, but in the basketball season they split up into two groups, taking turns and cheering at every other game.

Possessing the necessary punch, zipping energy, real color, and the true Cavalier spirit, these Cheerleaders were among the best in the city. However, their best trait was their ability to give exactly the right cheer at the right time, in this way really pepping up the team.

When you call to mind the Withrow and Chaminade football games you can remember how they got crowds to cheer, whether winning or losing, up to the final minute. The same was true during the basketball season, as at those hectic doubleheaders in the fieldhouse. They always pepped up the rooters to pep up the team.

Student Senators Enact Novel Legislation

IN ITS third year since its re-inauguration, the Student Council has proven that it can do almost anything, and do that well. Its presiding board was at first composed of the Senior Class Officers James Cucinotta, President; John Burns, Vice-President; Robert Kolk-meyer, Treasurer; and Don Daly, Secretary, Father Stueve acting as its moderator. In the second semester the Council elected new officers: John Clough, Chairman; Don Krumme, Vice-Chairman; and Tom Hunninghake, Secretary. Its successes so far have ranged from pushing the tobacco drive over the top to picking, at its bi-monthly meetings, that student worthy of being the Cavalier of the Month. Just one of its successful undertakings, which has found great favor in the hearts of the students, was the recommendation of a policy by which those students having an average of ninety per cent or better are exempted from taking the final examinations in that subject at the end of the year. Broadcasting musical selections in the cafeteria was tried out under its sponsorship.

Every home-room and major activity is represented in the Student Council by one elected member. In this way the whole student body can express its ideas. The twofold purpose of the Student Council is to cement the mutual relations between the students and the faculty on scholastic matters, and to direct and co-ordinate the social side of life in the student body.

AS IN other years, everyone in the school is enrolled in the Junior Red Cross. Perhaps the most important thing done by all the members is the filling of gift-boxes to send to the children overseas. The importance of these gift-boxes cannot be overestimated, for it is in this way that the spirit of America is impressed upon these children. In addition to this, several students are regular volunteers for Red Cross service, which includes serving at Red Cross headquarters and entertaining at various hospitals in this area. Other activities during the year included the painting of pictures by the art students for foreign countries.

There was also a safety program held at Western Hills High School on March 12.

WORKING under the principle that variety is the spice of life, this year's Junior-Senior Latin Club set out to prove that the Latin language isn't so dead after all. With Father Stueve replacing Father McKay as faculty moderator of the club, the Advocati Latini, as they call themselves, climaxed the year's many and varied events, which included the presentation of a play in Latin, the studying of the customs and government of ancient Rome, talks on famous Roman statesmen and scholars, with the publication of a magazine written entirely in Latin by members of the club. Truly, they have accomplished their objective.

Young Picassos Splash Activities

THE excellent work of the Art Club exemplifies self-sacrifice and diligence. This Club is composed entirely of seniors under the leadership of Brother Louis Weber. These boys were willing to sacrifice their own time and efforts in promoting school projects, with their outstanding sign and poster displays.

Their signs and posters helped to sponsor the Fall and Spring Bazaars, the Red Cross drive, the tobacco donation drive, the School Band, and this annual. Their signs also added color and life to our Football Pep rallies. Let us salute the Art Club which is striving for a better Purcell.

C-C Men Specialize In Public Appearances

LEADERSHIP and statesmanship is the theme of the Crimson Club. All of its members are seniors and their duty is to represent Purcell in community and city-wide activities as well as in-school activities.

The club is directed by Father Joseph Kerr. His inspiring guidance has added to the success of the organization.

Crimson Club member Larry Strittmatter was appointed City Engineer by his fellow contestants, in the Boy Mayor festivities in our "Queen City."

In November the WSAI "Junior Town Meeting of the Air" visited Purcell. The Crimson Club provided speakers Hal Knecht, Paul Palmisano, Paul Hahn, and Don Krumme. They gave their views on the topic, "What can we do to combat the Communist menace in this country?" This subject provided an interesting controversy, in which the audience participated with choice questions.

The Crimson Club presented a yuletide play, entitled, "Dust of the Road." Starring in this presentation were Jack Molloy, Jack Johannigman, Tom Barrett, and Jack Clough, all of whom joined to instill the true Christmas spirit into Cavalier hearts.

Crimson Clubbers Tom Dorger and Tom Kingery represented Purcell in a City-wide meeting, at which they discussed donations to the Bank of Hope for the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis.

Crimson Clubbers led by James Buse collected money in downtown areas for this cause while Jack Johannigman spoke at various clubs on the topic.

The progressiveness of the Crimson Club has pushed the Cavaliers onward to greater heights.

Wits Gravitare To Triple A-C

JUST a few years ago the need for a diocesan science club was felt here in Cincinnati. This deficiency resulted in the establishment of American Catholics, Alert Cincinnati-ans, Aquinas Club; better known as the Triple A-C. This club has as its primary aim the augmentation of science study among the students of Cincinnati's Parochial high schools.

The members of the organization convene at one of the high schools once a month to hear reports by fellow members or lectures given by a guest speaker concerning a particular scientific topic. From each of the Catholic high schools four representatives elect a boy and girl who act as co-presidents during the meetings. By its very existence, the Triple A-C declares the presence of a desire to seek out and solve the problems of science which is indicative of wisdom and understanding.

Attracts Intellectuals Of Test-tube Neophytes

FOR the past few years here at Purcell there has been an organization in existence known as the Chemistry Club. Under the guidance of Brother Geary, its purpose is to give attention to the study of chemistry. The Chemistry Club's members are those Seniors and Juniors who have taken, or are studying, Chemistry. The Chemistry Club, other than acquiring a degree of erudition in the funda-mentals of chemistry, has made it a practice to see these fundamentals put to use in every day life. This aim was realized in part, when the organization recently visited several industrial plants here in Cincinnati. Meetings of the Chemistry Club do not take place periodically. A gathering of its members takes place whenever there is some topic of chemistry presented for discussion or when a report is to be given by one of its members.

HILARIOUS comedy and farcical mystery were the order of the day when the Dramatic Club took the stage for their presentation of "A Slight Case of Murder." The cast included Paul Palmisano, Jack Johannigman, Paul Fleming, Tom Gallenstein, Jack Molloy, Bill Udry, Hal Knecht, Ray Bedwell, Frank Newman, Barry Buse, Charlie Ingersoll, Dick Letterst, Don Krumme, Ed Ellig, Walter Luken, Bob Paul, Charlie Hertlein, Tom Lorenz, Tom Barrett, Jack Clough, Paul Bock, and Walter Clemens.

Written by Howard Lindsay and Damon Runyon, the play deals with the discovery of four corpses, together with a half million dollars in stolen bookie's money, in the Louisville summer house of Remy Marko (Paul Palmisano), ex-racketeer turned legitimate brewer.

Baffled by this unwelcome find, Remy and his wife Nora (Jack Johannigman) seek to dispose of the debris. Simultaneously they are forced to maintain a certain air of respectability, since their daughter Mary (Paul Fleming) has fallen in love with the son of a prominent family, Chancellor Whitelaw (Hal Knecht).

Jack Johannigman's immortal admonition to her husband: "Youse ain't livin' in West End, Cincinnati, anymore!" and Paul Palmisano's howling portrayal of the ex-racketeer, together with the fine support of the remaining characters, combined to make "A Slight Case of Murder" an uncontrollable case of laughter.

Successfully Direct School's Social Finances

THE Commercial Club undertakes and handles many of the business activities of Purcell such as: the selling of concert tickets, the Junior and Senior Proms, the fall Turkey Raffle, arranging and decorating for the school dances, check rooms, refreshment booths, Spring Festival, senior card party; and it also engages in many other services. As you can surmise from the type of work done by this club, it not only helps to impress upon the mind, but also puts into practice the knowledge gained in the business course.

Since the Commercial Club is the business and financial organization in Purcell, most of its members are in their junior or senior year as business students. But the main requirement for membership is just to be a hard-working Cavalier.

The club faculty moderator is Brother Joseph Meder, and its officers for 1948-49 are President Greg Poulin and Vice President Tom Barrett.

"Sportlites," the topic all Cavaliers live and love, kept the boys reading with its play-by-play descriptions by its Editor, William Udry, who is a constant admirer of any sport. Laughs were furnished by Al Seifert in his work on the "Class News" with the assistance of Pat Burke.

Giving the staff guidance in arranging and correcting their articles as faculty advisor, Brother John Harrington, as usual, contributed another successful year.

Ralph Moeller, Charles Feldman, Victor Pierson, John Johannigman and Don Krumme wrote the picture descriptions.

The tedious job of typing copy for the printer kept George Wilp, Tony LaPille, Joe Russo and Joe Degaro quite busy.

Tom Siemers, Jack Clough, Jack Molloy, Tom Reardon and Bill Priebe handled the sports under the direction of Bill Udry.

Ed Ellig assigns articles to Paul Palmisano, Allen Siefert, Charles Hertlein, Herb Wilton and Larry Strittmatter.

Marianist Centennial Inspires Artists And Scriptmen

THE theme of the 1949 Cavalier is, as you probably already know, the Centenary of the Marianists in Cincinnati. The Marianists came in 1849, and, for over a hundred years have taught at some eleven different schools in Cincinnati.

The annual this year is to be bigger, and, we hope, better than those of preceding years. One reason is that Cavaliers got behind the patron drive and eliminated six pages of space taking ads.

While Pat Burke and Paul Petrosky take a look at the patrons, Tom Barrett and Ed Ellig check on the ads.

The 1949 Cavalier artists are Dennis Crowell, Bob Merkt, Tom Ray, John DeNoma, Paul Stump, Bill Scheve, Francis Ford and Bill Hatfield.

Brother Weber's boys of the art staff started work on the lay-outs early in October so that the book would be in your hands in time. A good three-fourths of the book was in the hands of the engraver by mid-January. The Art Club worked hard, fellows. They deserve a lot of credit for your annual.

Brother Weber and his salesmen sold eight-hundred books this year. That's a record for the school. When this was written there were 700 patrons sold. That left 100 to go.

Besides having a bigger book, and having sold more copies than any other year, the annual also has a larger staff than any other year. This, among other things, is one of the reasons why your annual gets in your hands on schedule, and that it equals or surpasses, we hope, the four preceding annuals which made "All-American."

Besides writing all the articles, the staff writes the descriptions of all the pictures that appear in the annual. We hope you enjoy them.

Our Dads And Mothers

THIS year the membership of the Welfare Association stands at more than 1500 paid members, an increase of about 400 over last year. In spite of the fact that only two money-raising functions were held during the year, the fall bazaar and the spring card party, the Association was able to contribute much to the school. Thanks to their efforts the gym was soundproofed, the front offices, athletic offices, and coaches' rooms were enlarged and renovated. A new radio-phonograph recorder was purchased and a new curtain for the stage procured.

Again this year the senior prom was paid for out of the proceeds of the card party given by the senior Mothers (backed by the officers of the Association) — fine work!

It is not difficult to see why the Welfare Association is such a successful organization. Each monthly meeting averages 700 to 800 members. All enjoy the social activities and still much is accomplished, because the faculty and parents work together as a team.

These helpful chaperons see to it that all Cavalier dances are conducted in an orderly manner.

Mr. Winstel's inspiring words, plus the desire to make the best ever, sent us over the top.

Mr. Anderson also gives the students some encouragement on how to influence people into buying raffle tickets.

These welfare members give their time for the benefit of Purcell by selling chances on valuable prizes.

Student Life

Determined to capitalize on his high school career, the Cavalier concentrates on activities. By combining social with scholastic activities under the auspices of Catholic teaching the Cavalier achieves a vast cultural background.

Under the shelter at Madeira park, the Purcell family pauses after an afternoon of physical exertion to partake of their delicious picnic lunches.

The boys look uninterested, but the girls commence a swoon act as Hunt swats another homer.

These folks round out a full day over their well-packed picnic lunches. Watch the figures, girlies!

Buschle Boys Perform At Banquet

Mr. Buschle's melody makers touch off the Grid Banquet to a good start with the Cavalier march.

The admiring fans took tips on "the know how" when Bro. Joe Jansen stepped to the plate.

Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, and a host of other ringers helped the dads come within one run of winning.

Wheels Of Fortune Spin Cavaliers Empty Pockets

Johnny Neumaier holds his prize as the ladies on the left think over plans for a duckskin hand bag. Seems the duck is protesting.

Just what could it be that is holding the attention of these Fall Festivalers? What's bothering you, Priebe — do you see a wooden nickel?

"So help me I'll get 'em this time. I'll shoot him dead." Take it easy McManus, that isn't an Injun he's shooting at.

Huninghake, how can you look at the camera with all that femininity at your right? If you don't wake up, Mitchusson will take over.

A fast talking saleslady receives a wary glance from a prospective customer as she attempts to sell chances on one of those delicious cakes.

Frank Hall and Bill Adkins stretch way over in a penny pitching game as Herb Ryan asks, "Hey, who threw this slug in here?"

Mr. Moeller holds his prize panda as the young lady on the right gazes longingly at the cake. Careful there, that's not good for the waistline.

4-F's boys take over the Lloyd rally, and harmonize on "Rye Whiskey." "What's the matter John, wouldn't they let you sing?"

"Cut it out, Mac, your kill'n me," says Dorger, while Sweeney sits by with his shotgun.

Dick Niehaus tells a joke. Laugh boys, he weighs 180.

Pigskin Previews Feature Senior Rallies

Those crimson-clad "Holler boys" whoop things up at the Hughes rally, as the team looks on with determined faces.

"Hold that Tiger!" Cheerleaders yell and students rock the ceiling with noise.

J. Crowley and B. Kern engage in a battle of wits. A seltzer won.

Boys from 4-B serenade the team. Is Daly thinking about his "Saturday date?"

"Slaughter the Thoroughbreds" the poster reads and the players are ready.

"Get in there and fight," urges Fr. Barrett, in the "Rockne" spirit.

Coach Jim McCarthy introduces his departing senior footballers for a "thank you" from students.

"Funnyman" Bill Scheve goose steps down the aisle in typical Nazi fashion, at 4D rally.

4-G-men pile into the Express with their "dates." P.S. It broke down.

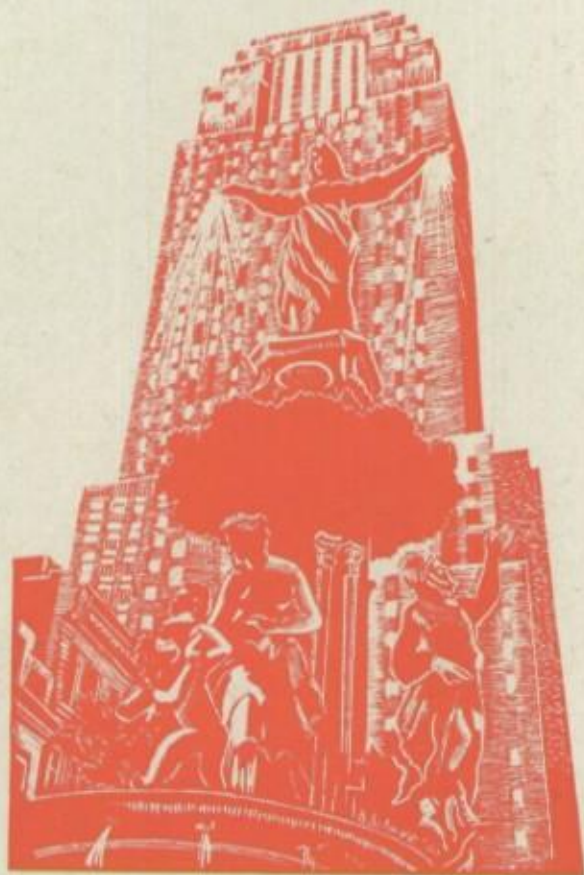

"Duketor I. Q." Udry, quizzes Barrett Buse as the other victims await the "slaughter."

4F comedians get off one of their famous "Spirituals" at X rally. Looks like Daly's having a vision.

Martino and Rudolph, "DAB" carriers, arrive early to keep the students posted on daily activities by means of the bulletin.

The faces of Holtgreffe and Meyer are familiar to every Cavalier who has purchased anything at the bookstore. Keep the prices down, huh, boys?

Fogelman, Thompson, Folzenlogen, and McGraw make sure all boys keep their appointment with Bro. Lawrence. They collect jug slips.

Haven't We Met Before?

Mrs. Carrie Jansen, Mrs. Frank Stallo, Miss Anna Kelly, Mrs. Loretta Herrmann, and Mrs. Clara Macht prepare the Castle chow.

Gillespieites Mob Festival Frolic

Cavaliers take the young things in hand for a round of jitterbugging or should we say a round of calisthenics.

From the smiles on the partners' faces, these Cavalettes have been reading, "How to Win Friends and Influence People."

Attendants at this Purcell dance seem to be thoroughly enjoying themselves. And apparently Al Colussi has his arms well filled.

Fr. Byrne puts on his smile of receiving, as Santa Claus gives him his Christmas present.

Parents' Novena Ends With Solemn Mass

Old Folks Make With The Christmas Spirit

Members of the Welfare Association celebrate the Christmas season with "cheer"; as anyone can see the source of refreshment is the ever reliable "coke."

St. Francis De Sales pews are crammed as Cavaliers bring their Christmas Novena to a close in a most fitting manner by attending Mass.

Bros. Jansen, Rossman, Deibel, Gensler, Mravintz, and Hamm blend their voices and give forth with a little Christmas cheer at the Purcell Christmas party.

The Cavaliers closed their annual Christmas novena with high mass at St. Francis DeSales Church. The Communion rail received almost 100% turnout.

Father Boyle lends a pleasant voice to finish up the Christmas Mass as Father Barrett and Father Frost stand by in profound silence.

Jovial Mr. Clough, alias Santa Claus, rewards our two faithful secretaries with gifts at the Welfare's Christmas Party, while Mr. Ruf genially assists.

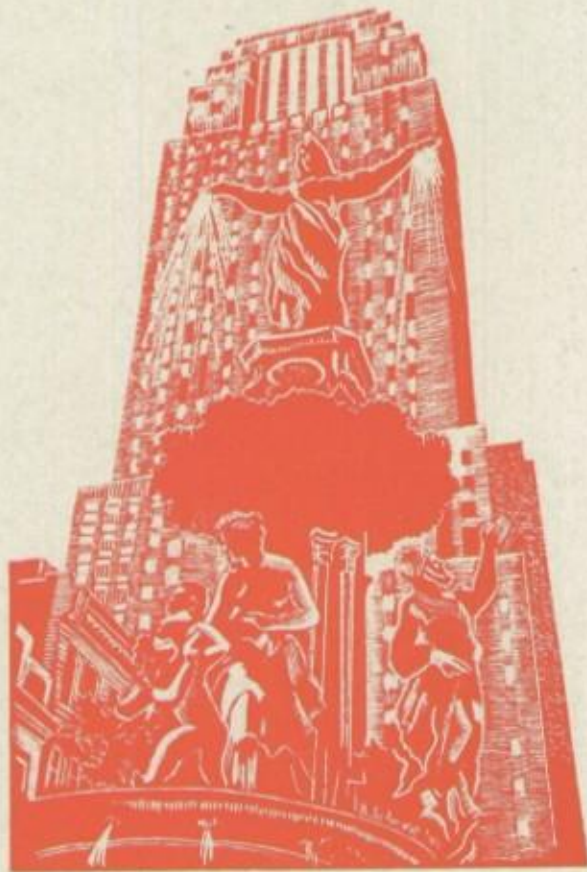

Is everybody happy? It seems to be that way as drums are played, pipes smoked, and refreshments rapidly consumed at the Christmas Party.

School Year Begins With Mass

The priest intones the gospel at the Mass closing the Christmas Novena by the students for their parents.

Contemplating faces take in the solemn offering of the Mass as the entire student body benefit from the religious ceremony, ending their Christmas Novena.

Christmas Gifts To Old Men

Every year the men of Purcell get behind the Tobacco Drive for "The Home of the Aged," cared for by the Little Sisters of the Poor. The students realize the appreciation which men in their advanced age obtain from smoking.

October Fosters Rosary Devotions

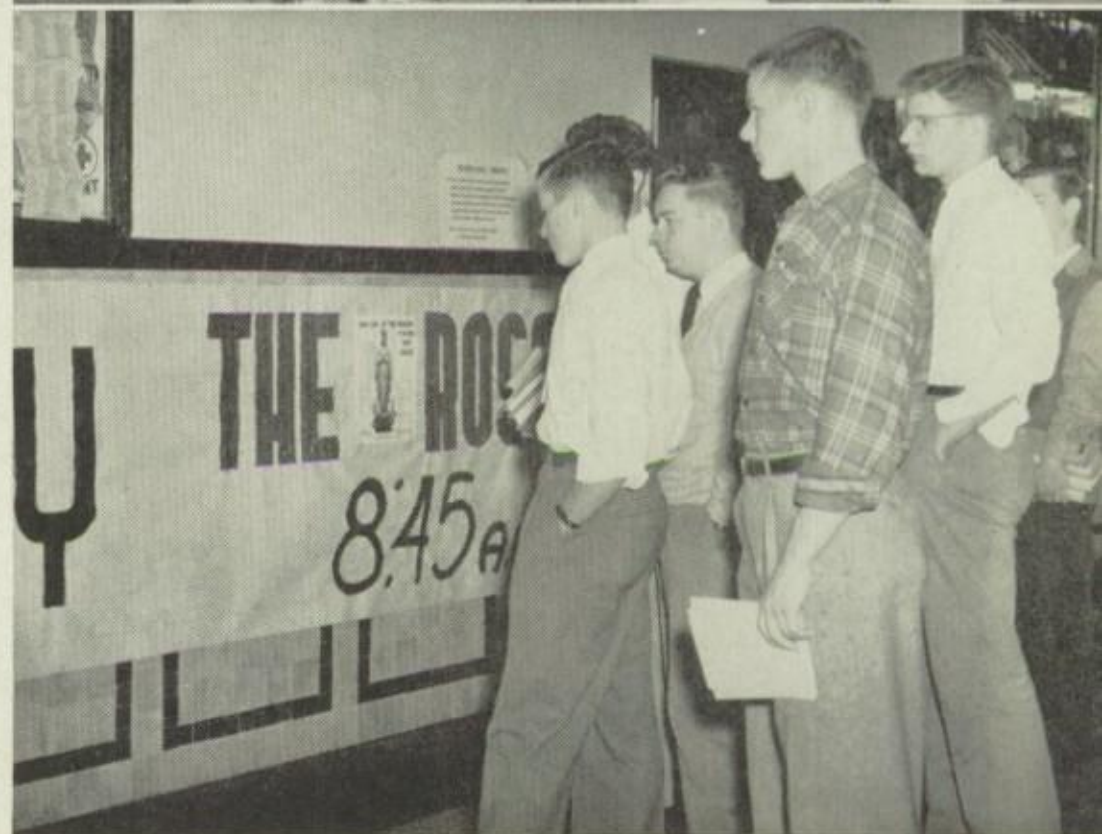

Throughout October, month of the Holy Rosary, Cavaliers flocked to the auditorium to pray the rosary en masse — the first year for this activity.

Some calm students size up the new sign and make the decision. The daily rosary activity had an impressive reaction and will likely become a custom.

Christmas Play: Dust Of The Road

John "Prudence Steele" Johannigman looks puzzled in the Crimson Club's Christmas Presentation "Dust of the Road."

Peter Steele (Tom Barrett) is confronted with his sins by the ghost of Judas (Jack Molloy).

Looks as though someone has all he can hold.

After School Refreshments

During the summer, the ice-cream wagon is a must for many Cavaliers. Hey! Lend me a nickel. I want to get some too.

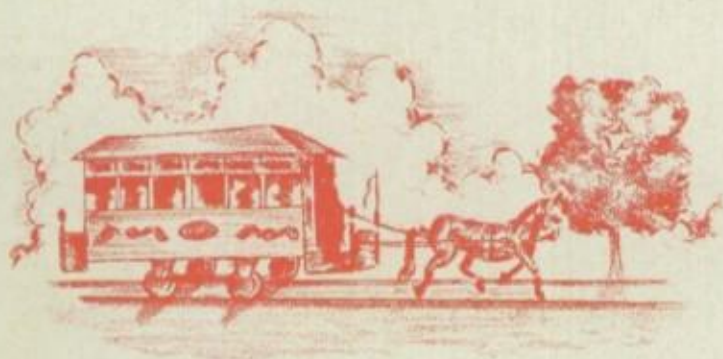

The Memory Of Our '49 Retreat Is Strong

Fr. Jerome Kircher led a retreat which will live in the minds of Cavaliers and guide their destinies forever.

Fr. Kircher inspires the upperclassmen, while urging them on to better spiritual living.

Unusual Events Spotlight School Routine

Bro. Geary springs a trap on an unsuspecting Freshie. Don't fret, son, it happens to the best of us; besides, you can always plead ignorance.

Royalty For A Night

Their royal highnesses, Jim Grady and Carolyn Wittekind, presided over the Senior prom. Jack Martin and Barbara Bail held the honors when the Juniors went formal.

Pretty Diana was the soloist for the band's successful Christmas concert. When the applause and whistling subsided, she obliged with an encore.

Jerry Willging holds one of his masterpieces of creation as Bro. Deibel, Jack Hennegan, John Stolz, and Don Stump gaze at it admiringly.

Cooperation—Keynote of Success

It is a pleasure to watch a good team function, but little do we realize the vast organization necessary to produce such a team. Coaches, supervisors, managers, trainers, material, equipment and even the people in the stands must work together for a team's welfare. Cooperation is a necessary and vital factor in achieving success even with such a team as the Cincinnati Street Railway. By constantly satisfying the ordinary as well as the special transportation needs of the people in the Queen City, the Railway Company has gained the respect of the people.

Study Bells To Telephone Bells

A salute and best wishes to graduates of 1949. We hope some of you will join the telephone organization, become imbued with its traditional spirit of service, and remain to help provide fast, reliable communications through the years.

It's a good place to work, with good pay, excellent working conditions, vacations, thrift plans, medical service, Company-paid pensions and sickness-accident-death benefits.

There is a great opportunity for young men and women in helping to build telephone communications of the future.
